

Karina Strydom

My colouring book of

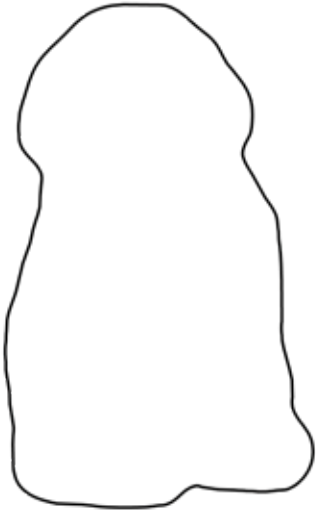

BABY animals

facts • vocabulary • SA languages • reading • writing • drawing • colouring in puppy

puppy

Find the right sticker in the back of the book.

I am a baby dog. There are many different kinds of dogs. They are called breeds. There are also small dogs and big dogs. Some have short hair, and others have long hair. A dog barks.

How do I say the words in:

English

puppy

Afrikaans

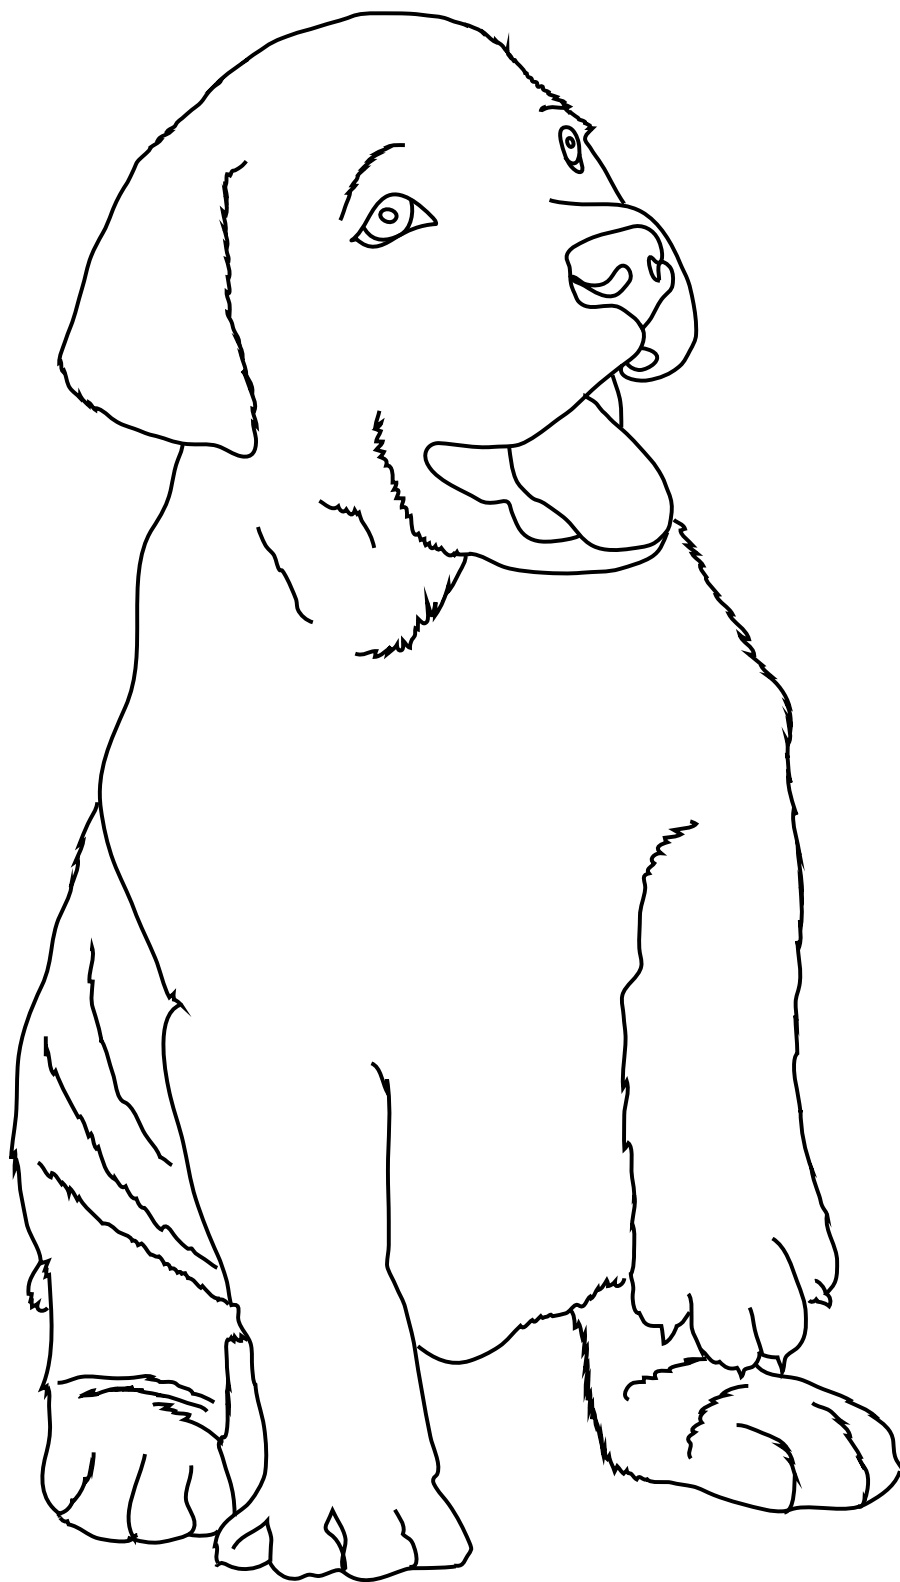

hondjie

isiZulu

umdlwane

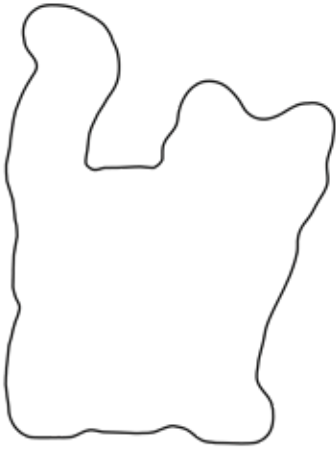

Sesotho

mootlwana

kitten

kitten

Find the right sticker in the back of the book.

I am a baby cat. Cats mew and are covered in soft, silky fur. There are many different kinds of cats and they come in many interesting colours.

How do I say the words in:

English

kitten

Afrikaans

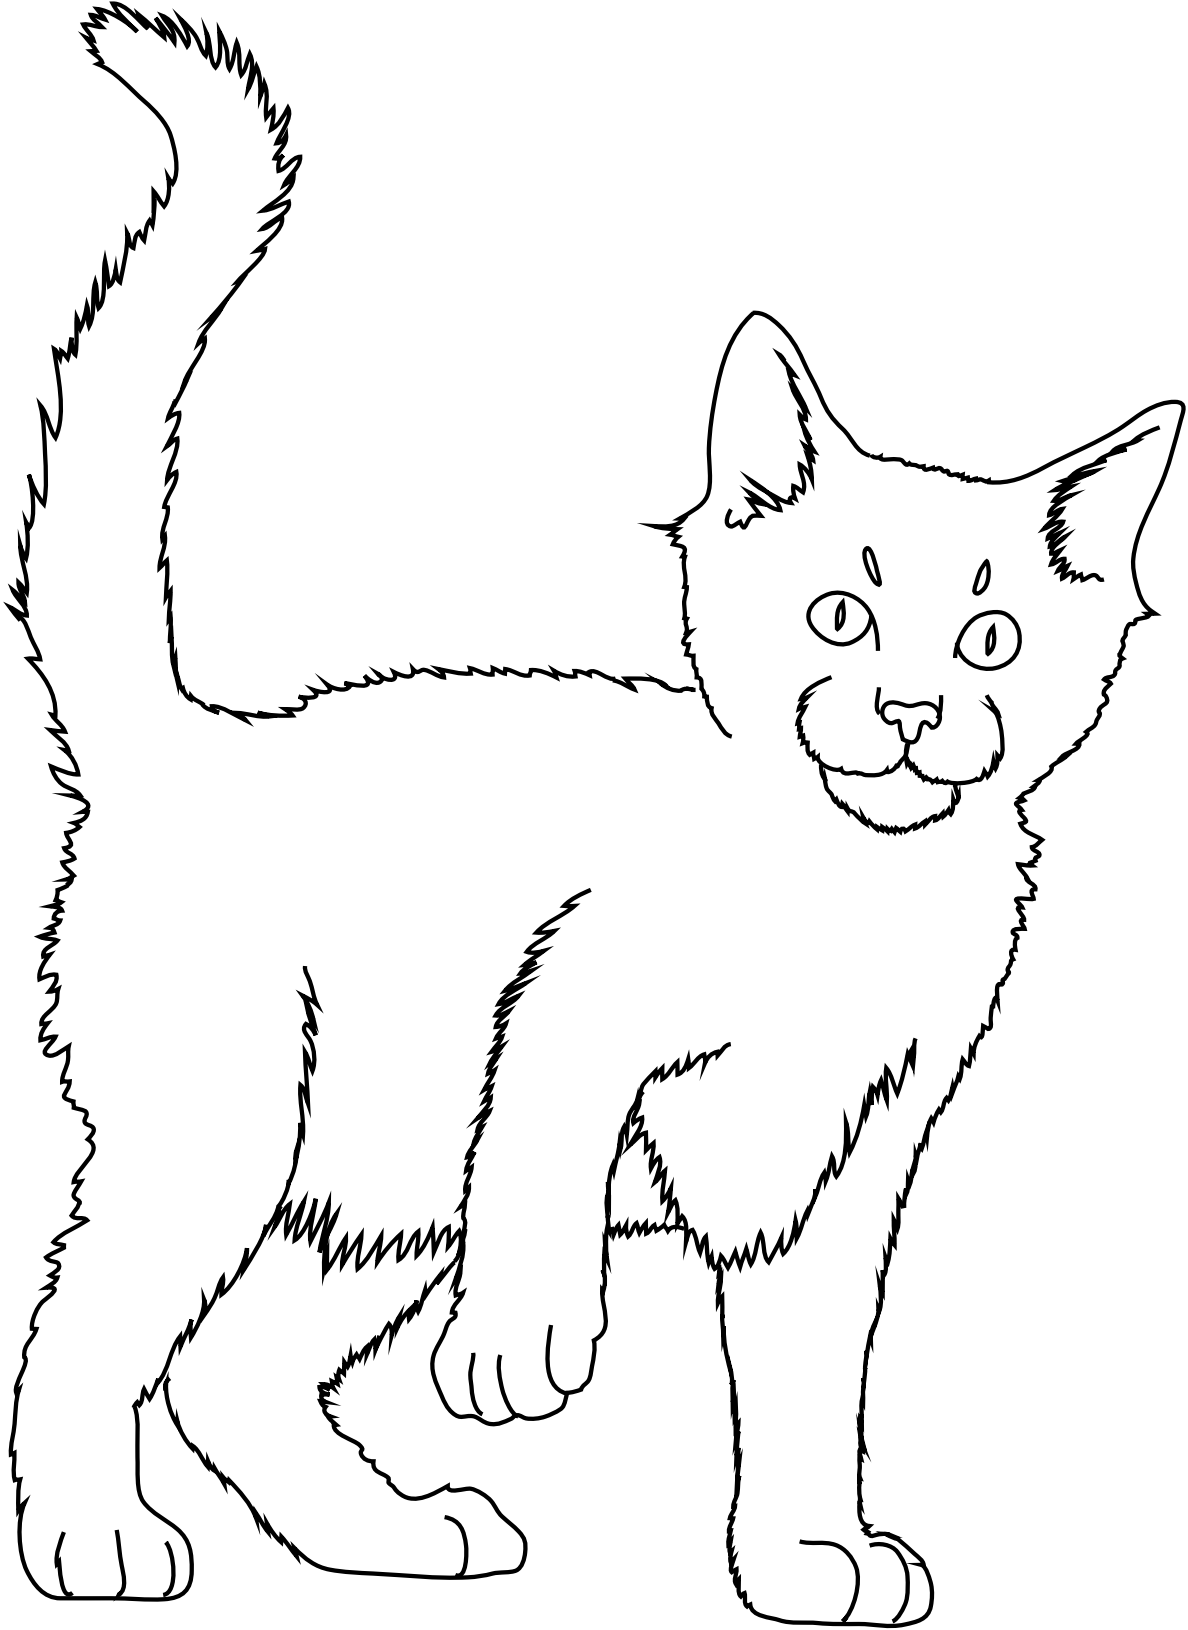

katjie

isiZulu

izingane lekati

Sesotho

ledinyane la katse

duckling

duckling

Find the right sticker in the back of the book.

I am a baby duck. Ducks quack. A duck is a bird that can float on water. It has webbed feet that it uses like flippers to help it swim. Ducks can even dive under water to catch fish and small insects for their dinner.

How do I say the words in:

English

duckling

Afrikaans

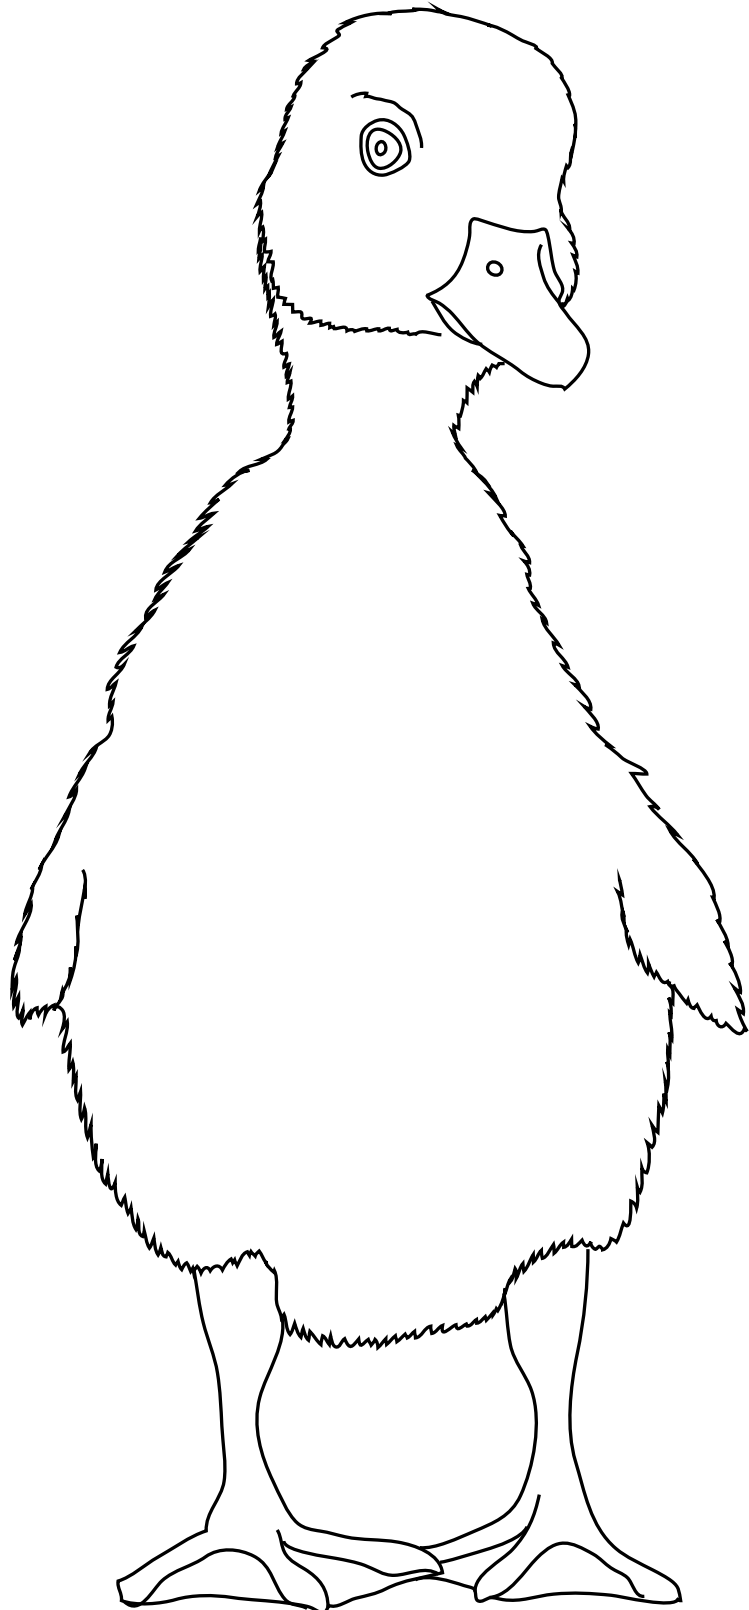

eendjie

isiZulu

ichwane ledada

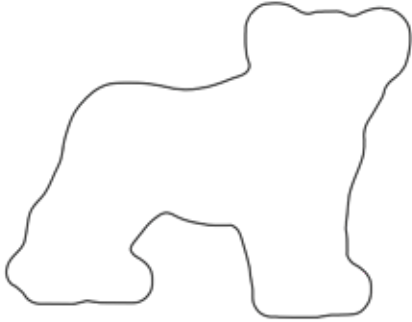

Sesotho

tsuonyana ya letata

cub

cub

Find the right sticker in the back of the book.

I am a baby lion. Lions roar. Lions are very large wild cats and are extremely dangerous animals because they like to eat meat. You can tell that a lion is male by his big, thick mane.

How do I say the words in:

English

cub

Afrikaans

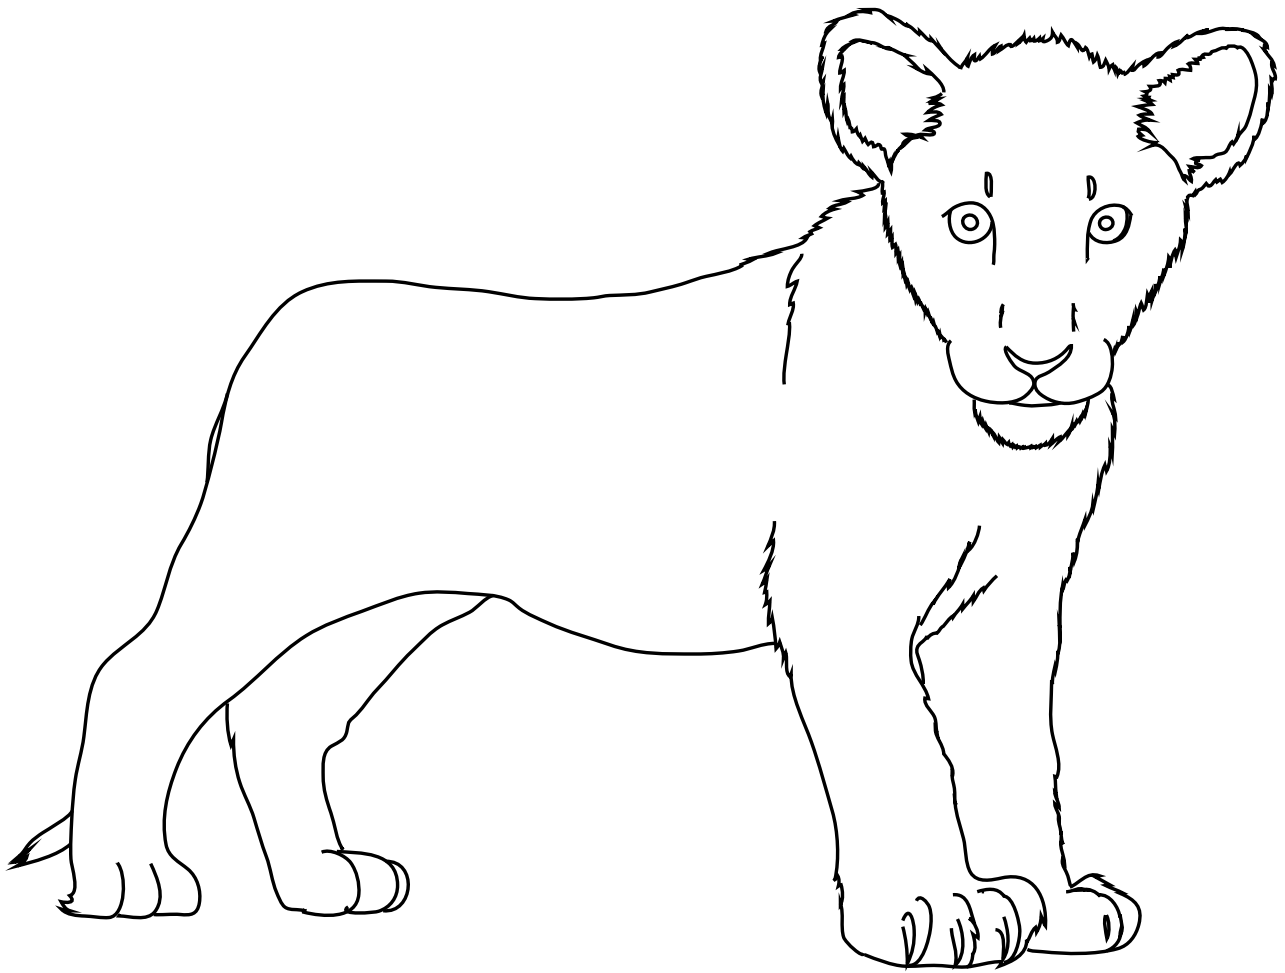

welpie

isiZulu

iwundlu

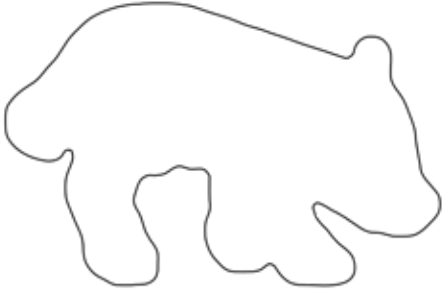

Sesotho

ledinyane la tau

piglet

piglet

Find the right sticker in the back of the book.

I am a baby pig. Pigs oink. Pigs eat almost anything and they are normally fat. This is where the saying “as fat as a pig” comes from. Pigs live in a pigsty and they love rolling in mud.

How do I say the words in:

English

piglet

Afrikaans

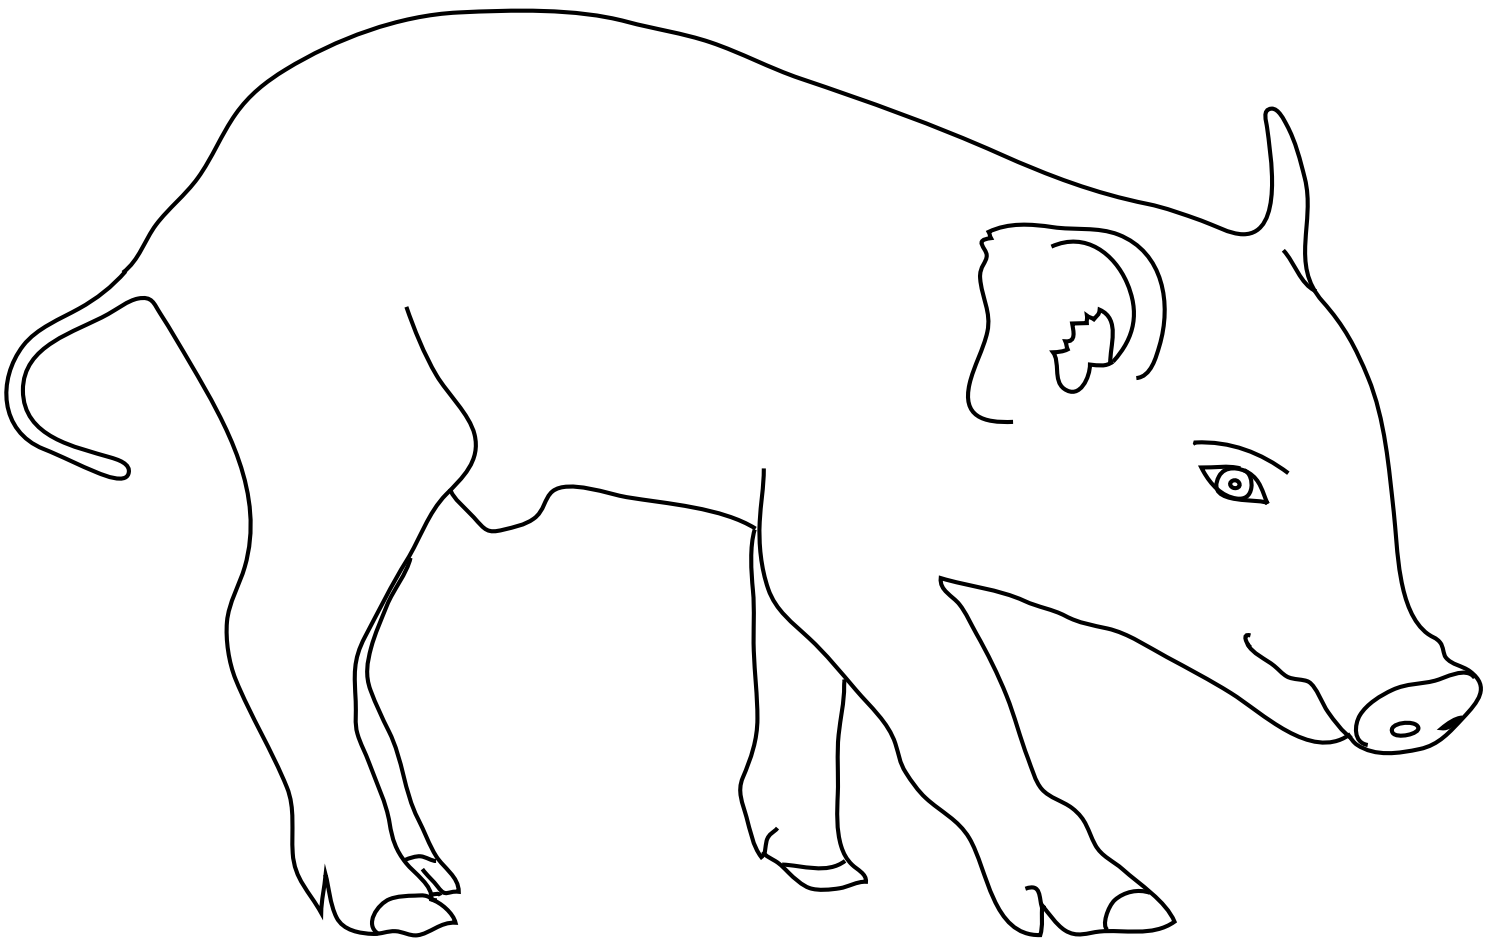

varkie

isiZulu

izingyane lengulube

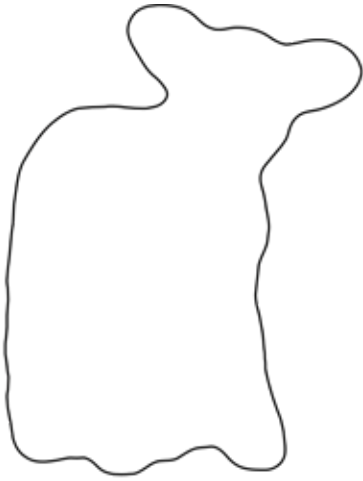

Sesotho

fakatshana

lamb

lamb

Find the right sticker in the back of the book.

I am a baby sheep. Sheep bleat. Sheep are very useful in many ways. We use the wool from a sheep to make jerseys and blankets to keep us warm. We use sheep's skin for making slippers, and we eat the meat of a sheep.

How do I say the words in:

English

lamb

Afrikaans

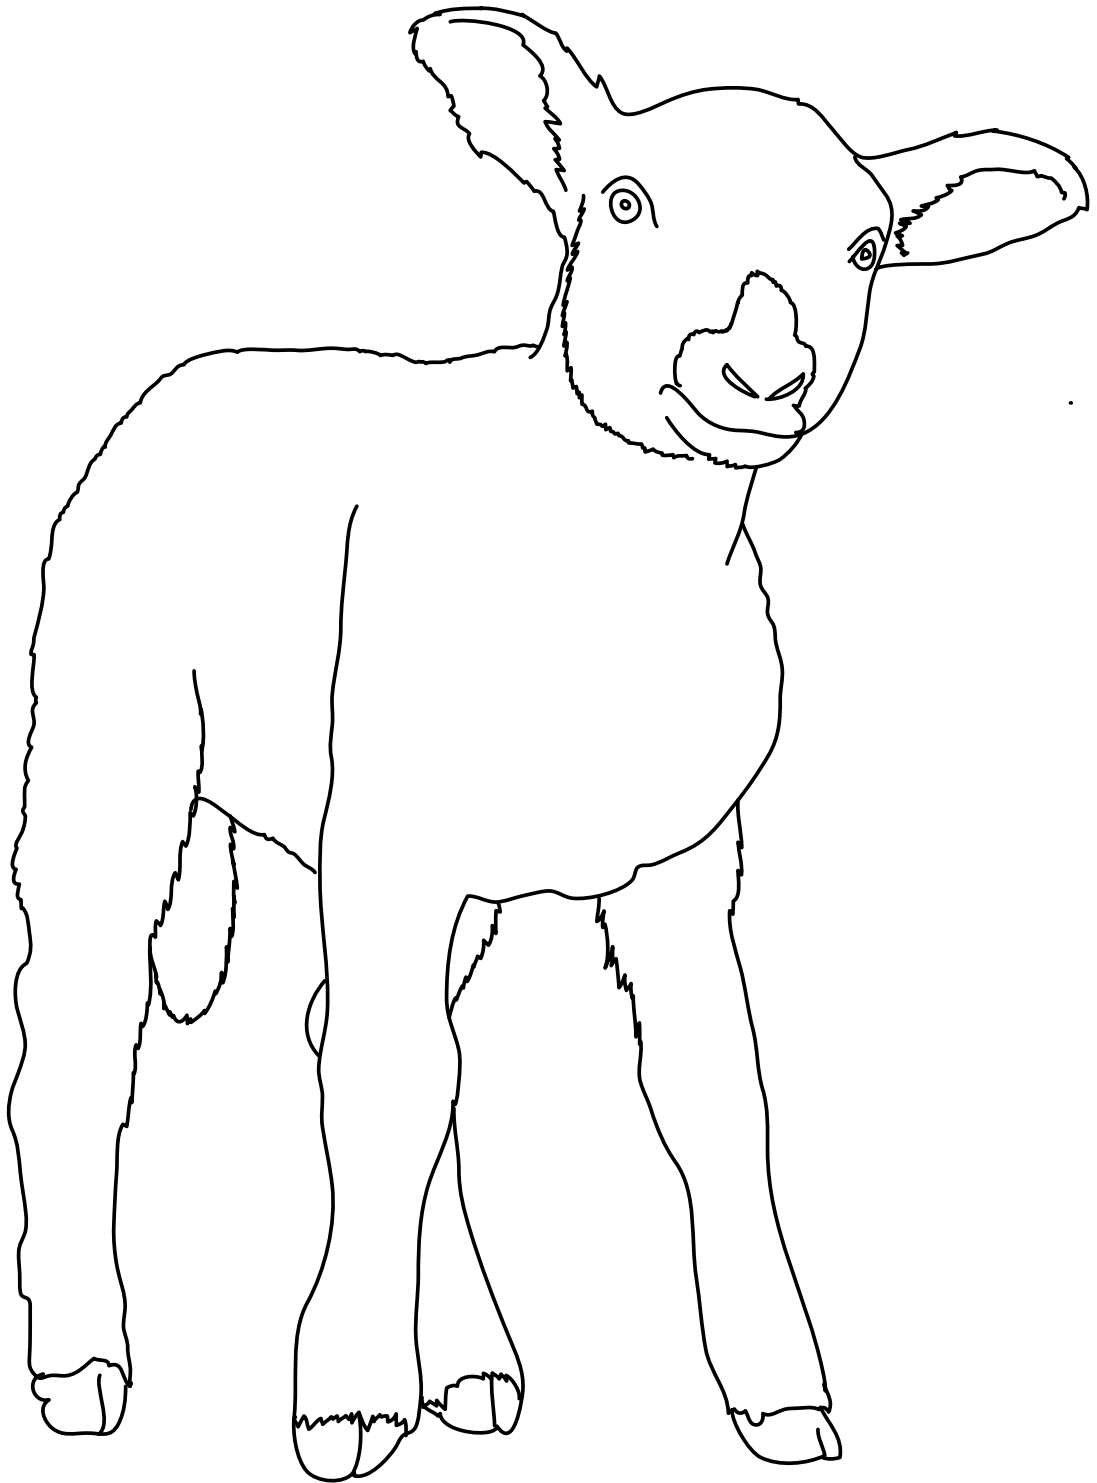

lammetjie

isiZulu

izingane lemvu

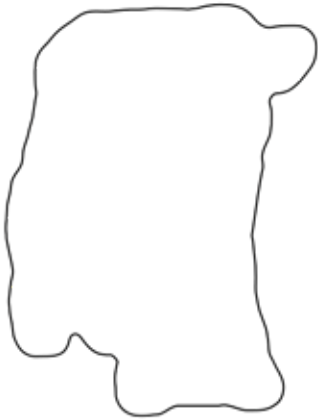

Sesotho

konyana

calf

calf

Find the right sticker in the back of the book.

I am a baby cow. Cows moo. Cows get milked every day and their milk is sold to a dairy. The dairy bottles the milk and we buy it from a supermarket. We also eat beef which comes from cows.

How do I say the words in:

English

calf

Afrikaans

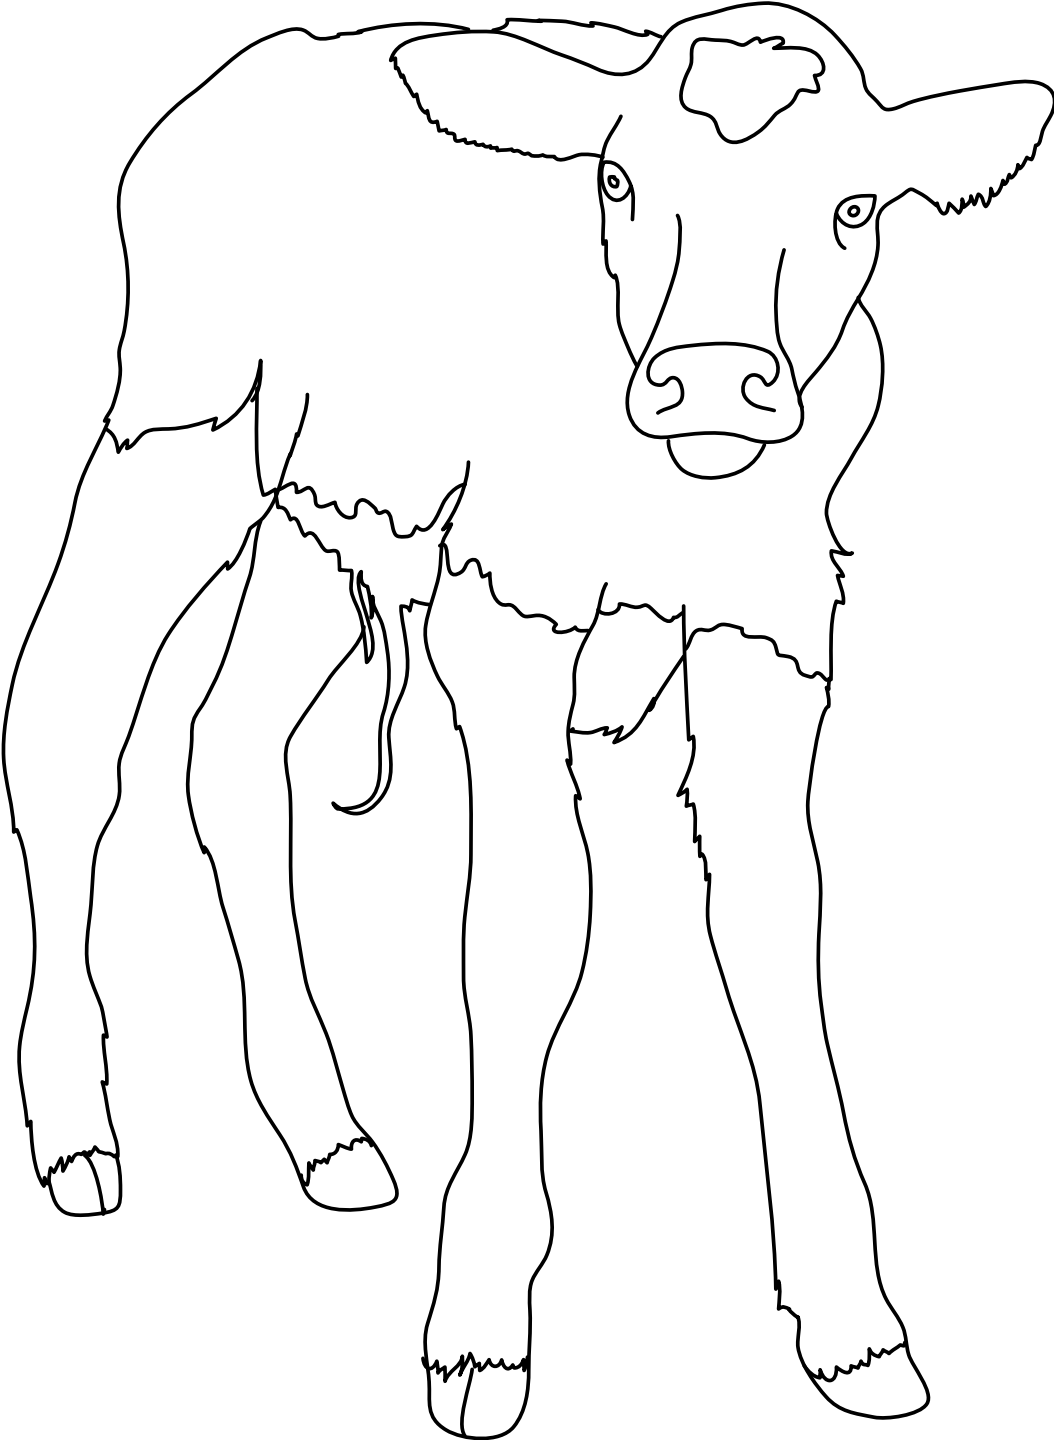

kalfie

isiZulu

inkonyane

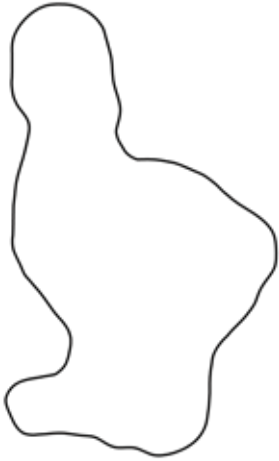

Sesotho

namane

gosling

gosling

Find the right sticker in the back of the book.

I am a baby goose. Geese cackle or make a funny gobbling sound. We use the feathers of geese in cushions, pillows and duvets to keep us comfortable and warm.

How do I say the words in:

English

gosling

Afrikaans

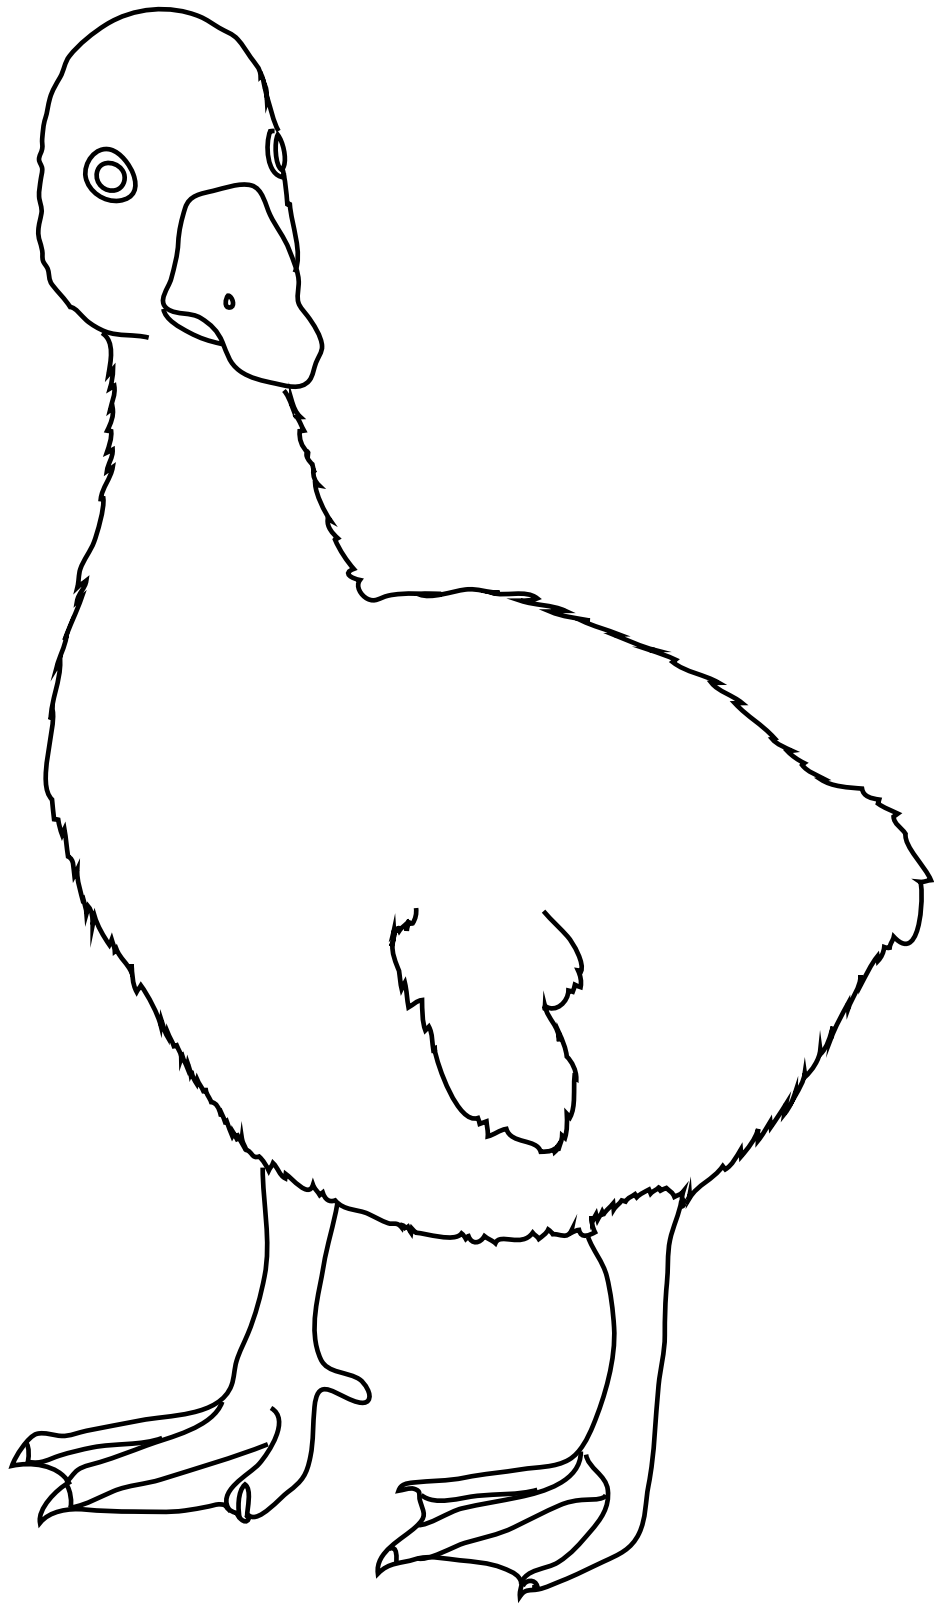

gansie

isiZulu

ihansana

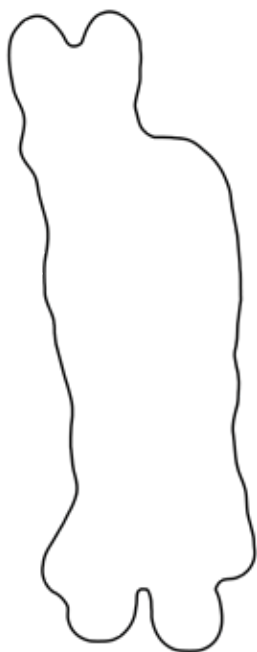

Sesotho

tsuonyana ya legansi

foal

foal

Find the right sticker in the back of the book.

I am a baby horse. Horses neigh. People like to ride on horses and horses can also be used to pull farm equipment or a wagon. A filly is a young female horse.

How do I say the words in:

English

foal

Afrikaans

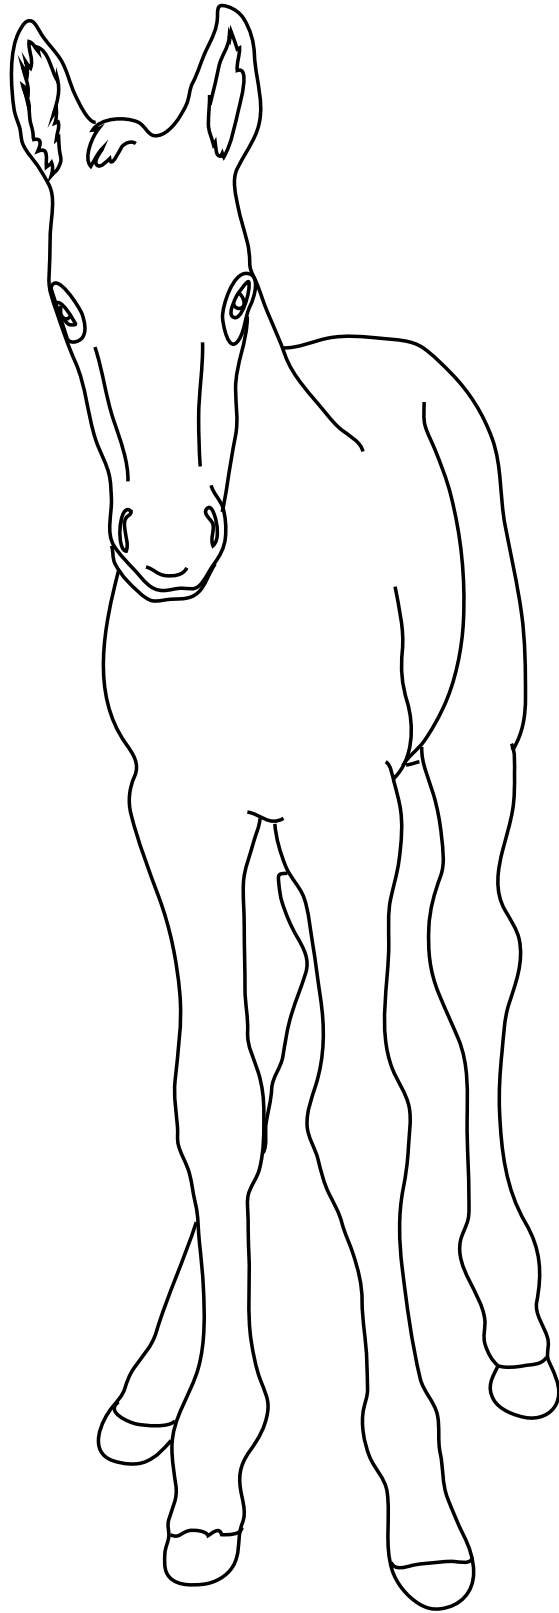

vulletjie

isiZulu

ithokazi lehashi

Sesotho

petsana

chick

chick

Find the right sticker in the back of the book.

I am a baby chicken. Chickens cluck. We get eggs and meat from chickens. Baby chicks are covered in yellow fluff which is replaced by white or coloured feathers as it grows older.

How do I say the words in:

English

chick

Afrikaans

kuikentjie

isiZulu

ubucubu

Sesotho

tsuonyana

