

My colouring book of

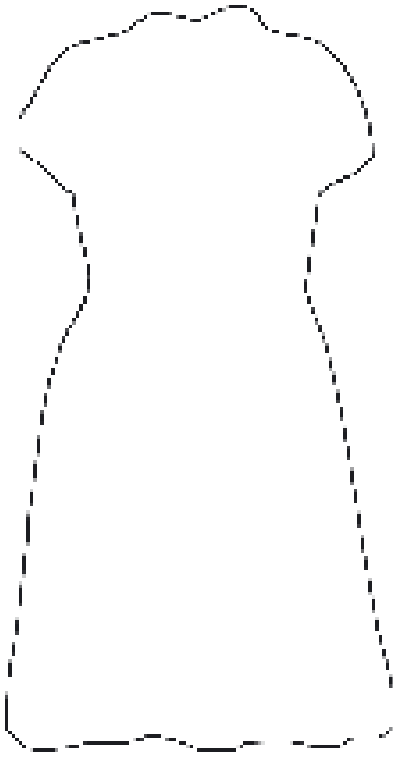

CLOTHES

facts • vocabulary • SA languages • reading • writing • drawing • colouring in dress

dress

Find
the right
sticker in the back of the book.

Some dresses are short while other dresses are long. Girls wear dresses with long sleeves in winter and dresses without sleeves in summer.

How do I say the word in:

English

Afrikaans

dress

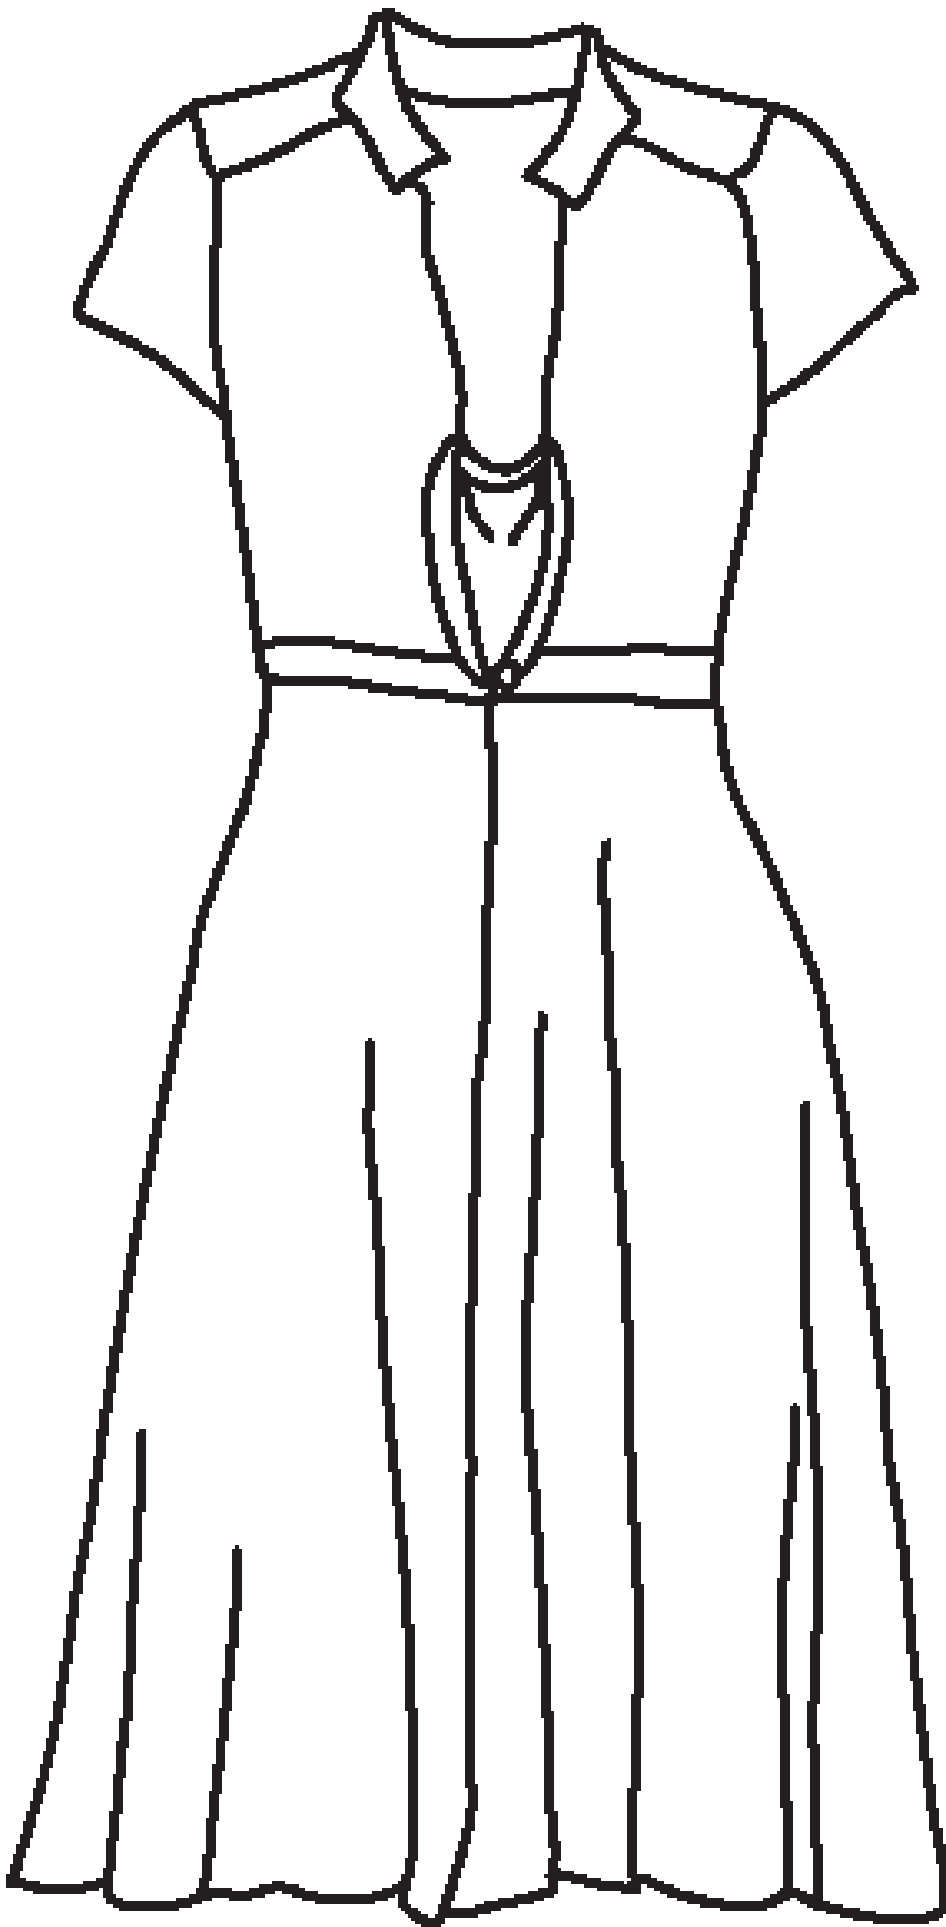

rok

isiZulu

Sesotho

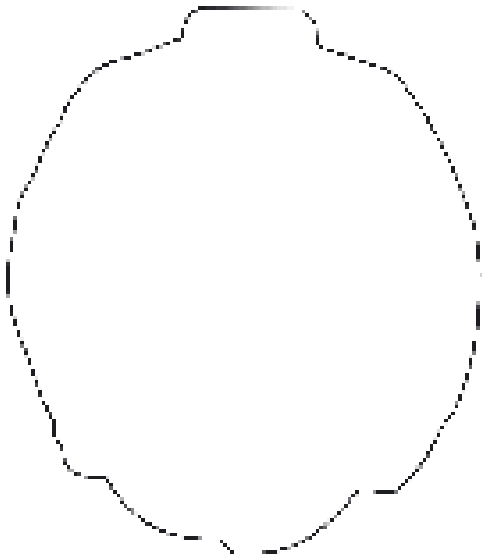

ilokwe

mose

shirt

shirt

Find
the right
sticker in the back of the
book.

A shirt has a collar and buttons. It can have long sleeves and cuffs or it can have short sleeves. You can tuck your shirt in and wear a tie with it, or let it hang over your trousers.

How do I say the word in:

English

Afrikaans

shirt

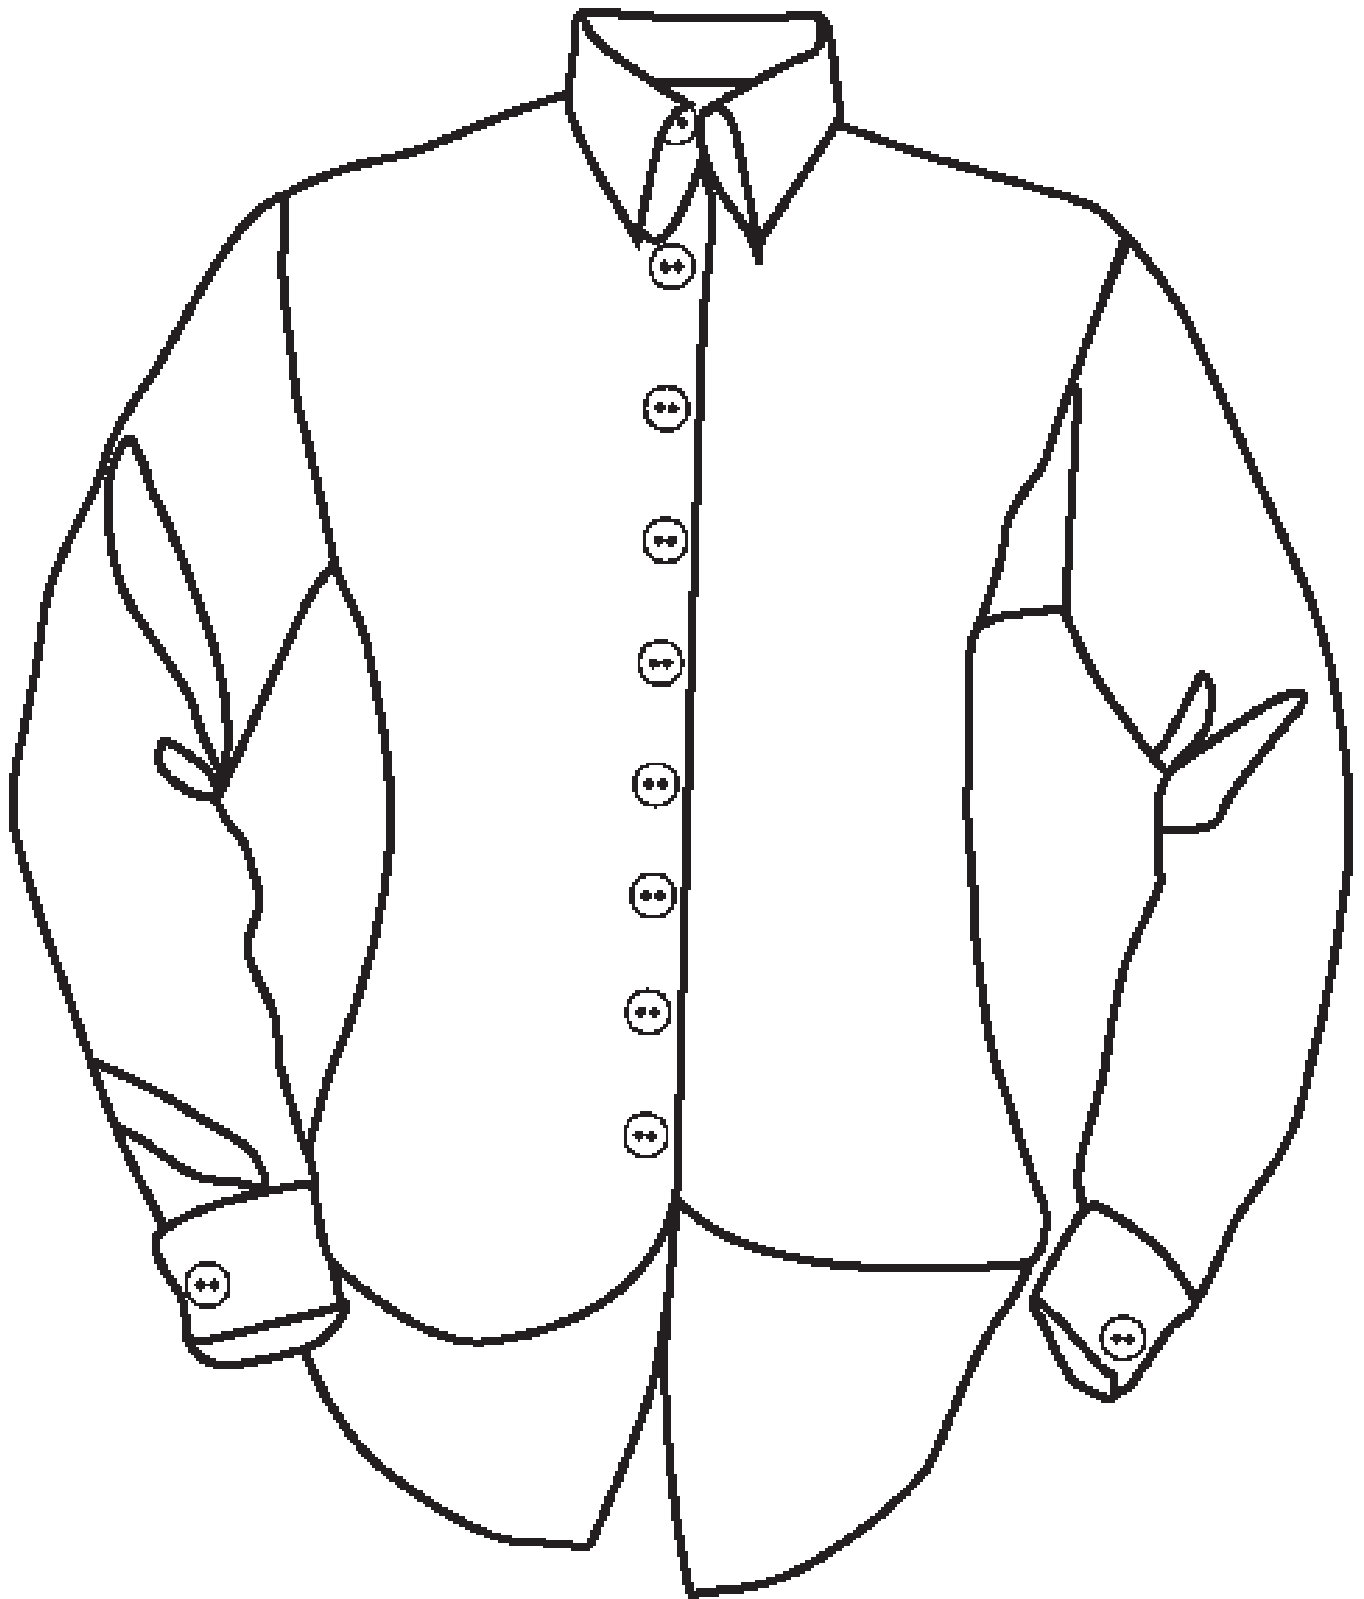

hemp

isiZulu

Sesotho

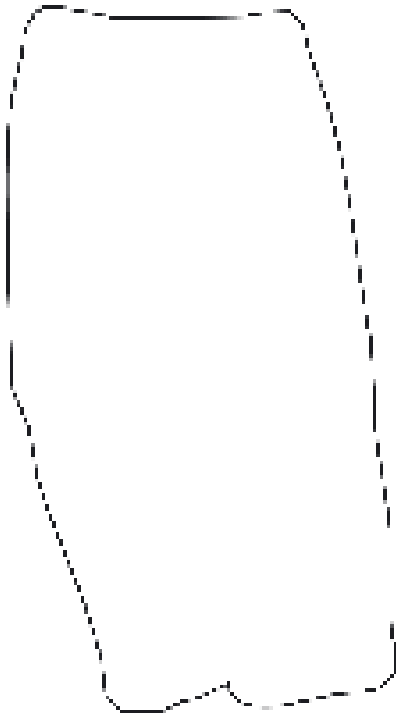

ihembe

hempe

trousers

trousers

Find
the right
sticker in the back of the
book.

Boys and girls wear trousers. Trousers come in many styles, like stove-pipe trousers, jeans, bell-bottom trousers, or chinos.

How do I say the word in:

English

Afrikaans

trousers

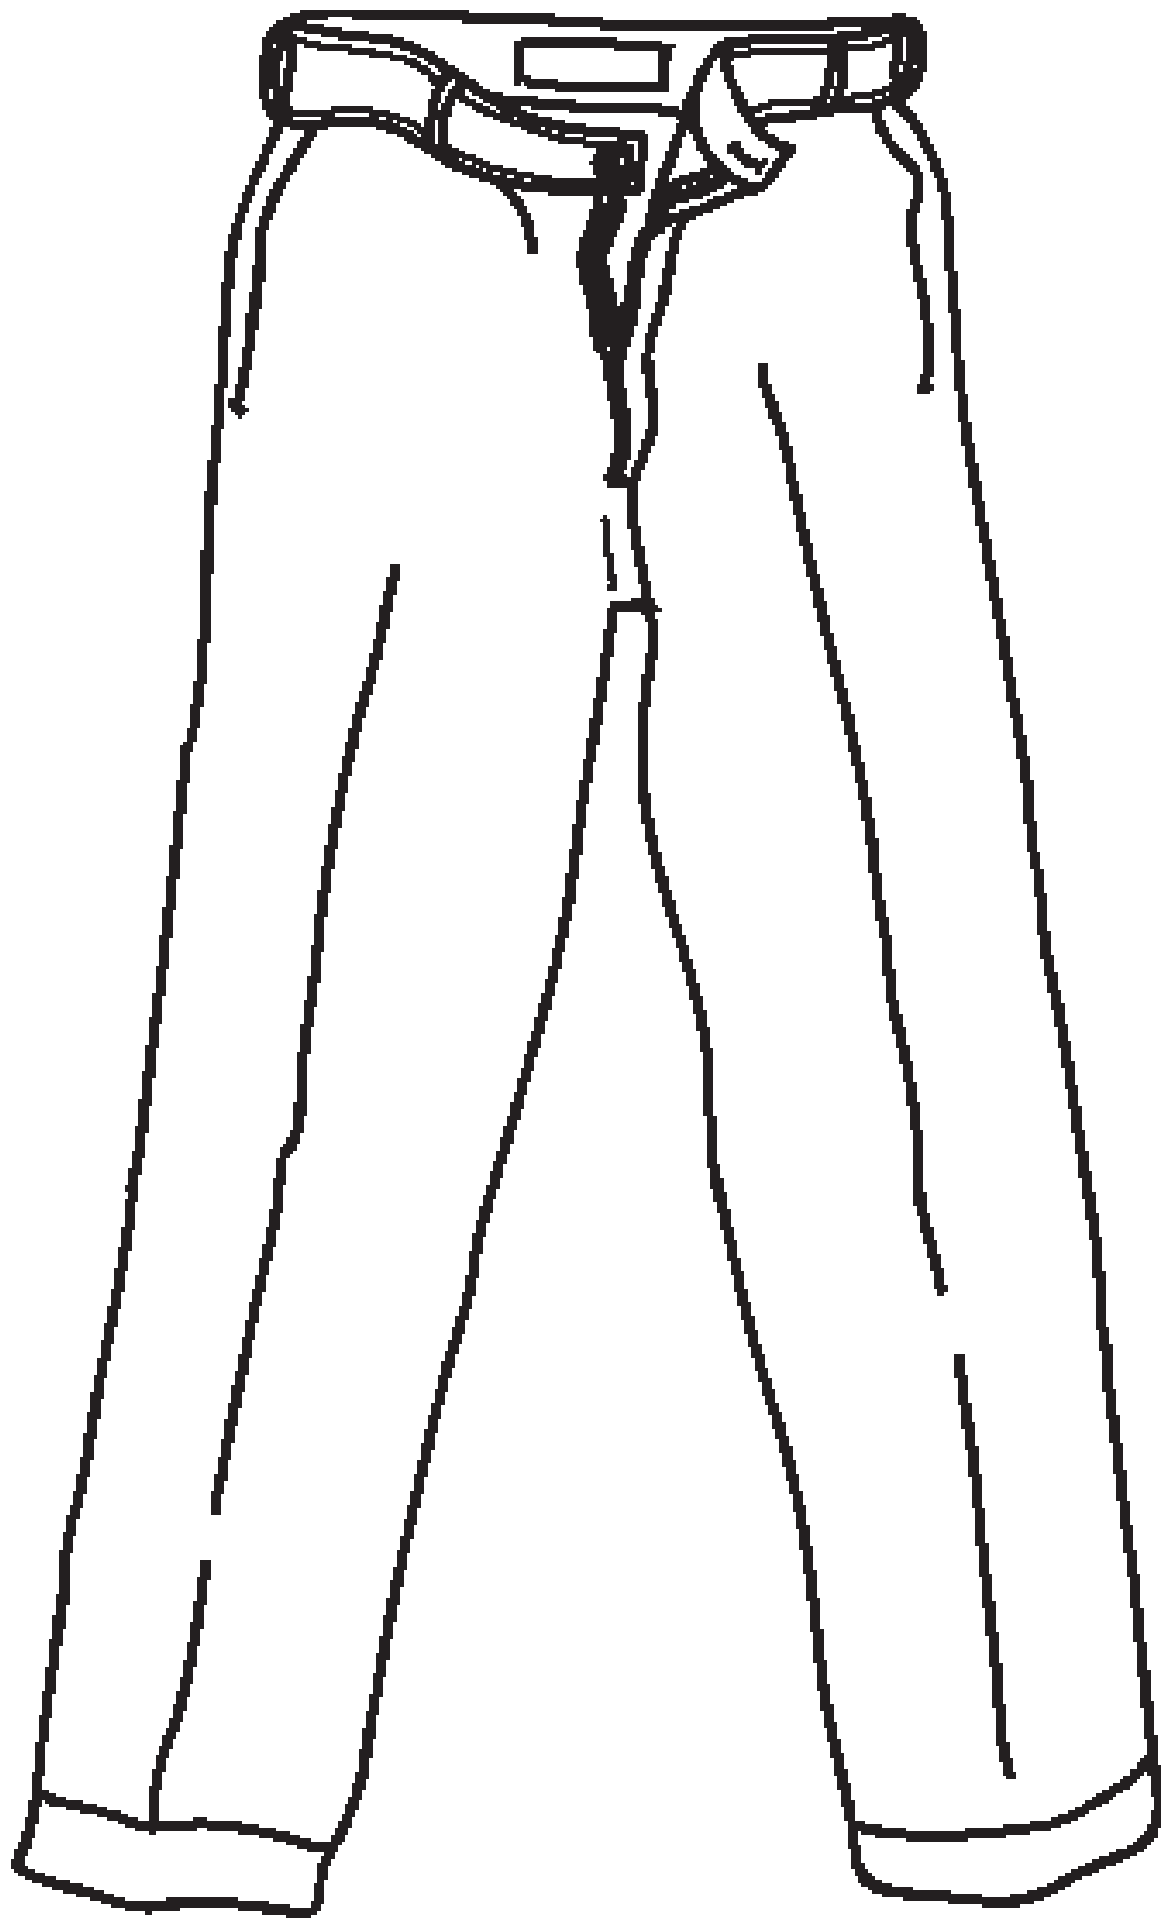

langbroek

isiZulu

Sesotho

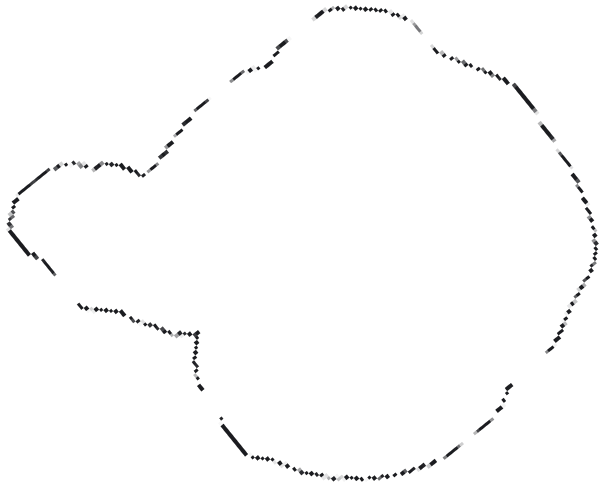

ibhulukwe

borikgwe

jacket

jacket

Find
the right
sticker in the back of the
book.

When it is cold, boys and girls can wear jackets to keep them warm. A school blazer is a type of jacket.

How do I say the word in:

English

Afrikaans

jacket

baadjie

isiZulu

Sesotho

ibhantshi

baki

shoes

shoes

Find
the right
sticker in the back of the
book.

There are many types of shoes for different uses - shoes for school, rugby, soccer, tennis or running. We wear sneakers when we hang out with friends and big girls love wearing high heels when they go out.

How do I say the word in:

English

Afrikaans

shoes

skoene

isiZulu

Sesotho

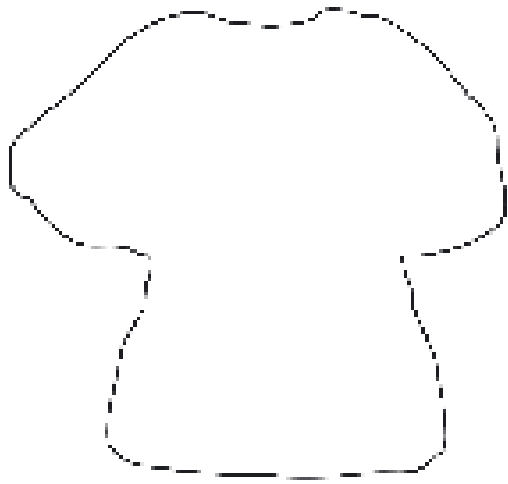

izicathulo

dieta

blouse

blouse

Find
the right
sticker in the back of the
book.

A blouse looks like a shirt, but sometimes it has lace, frills and fancy buttons. Girls wear blouses with their trousers or skirts.

How do I say the word in:

English

blouse

Afrikaans

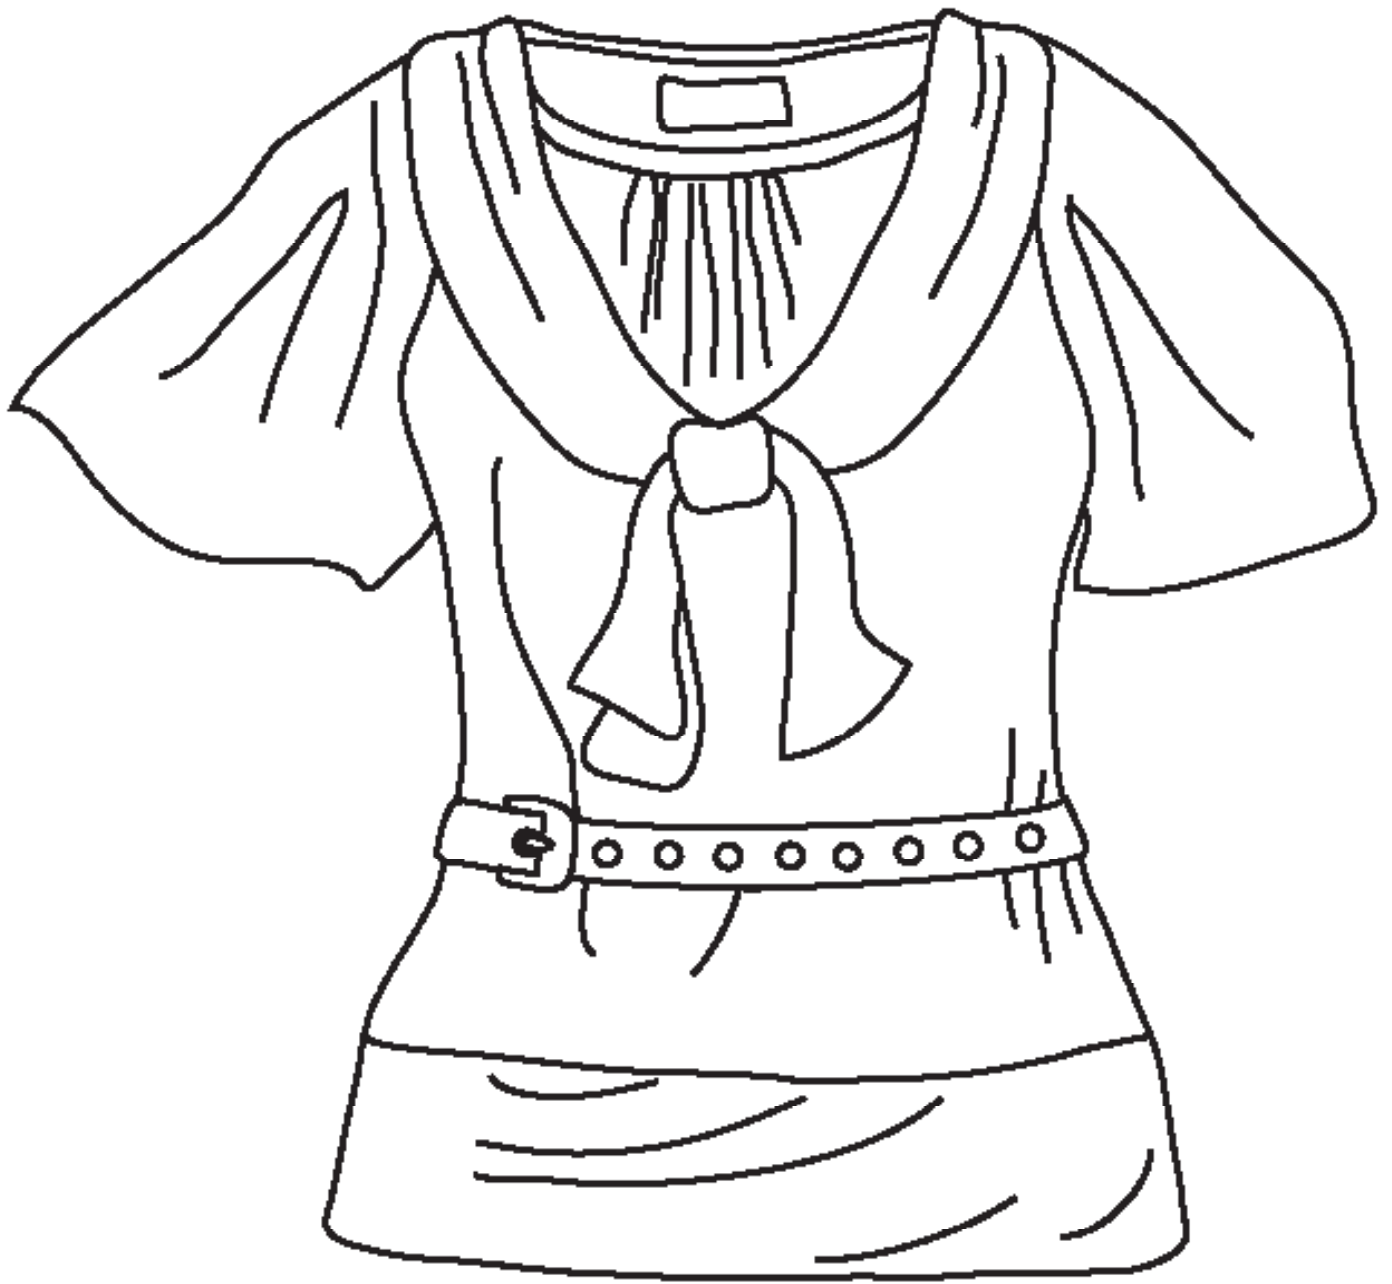

bloes

isiZulu

ibhulawozi

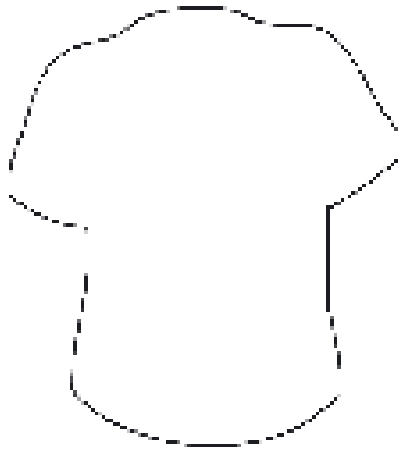

Sesotho

bolaose

t-shirt

t-shirt

Find
the right
sticker in the back of the
book.

A T-shirt also looks like a shirt but has no collar. Boys and girls wear T-shirts with jeans and sneakers when they are playing or going to the movies.

How do I say the word in:

English

Afrikaans

T-shirt

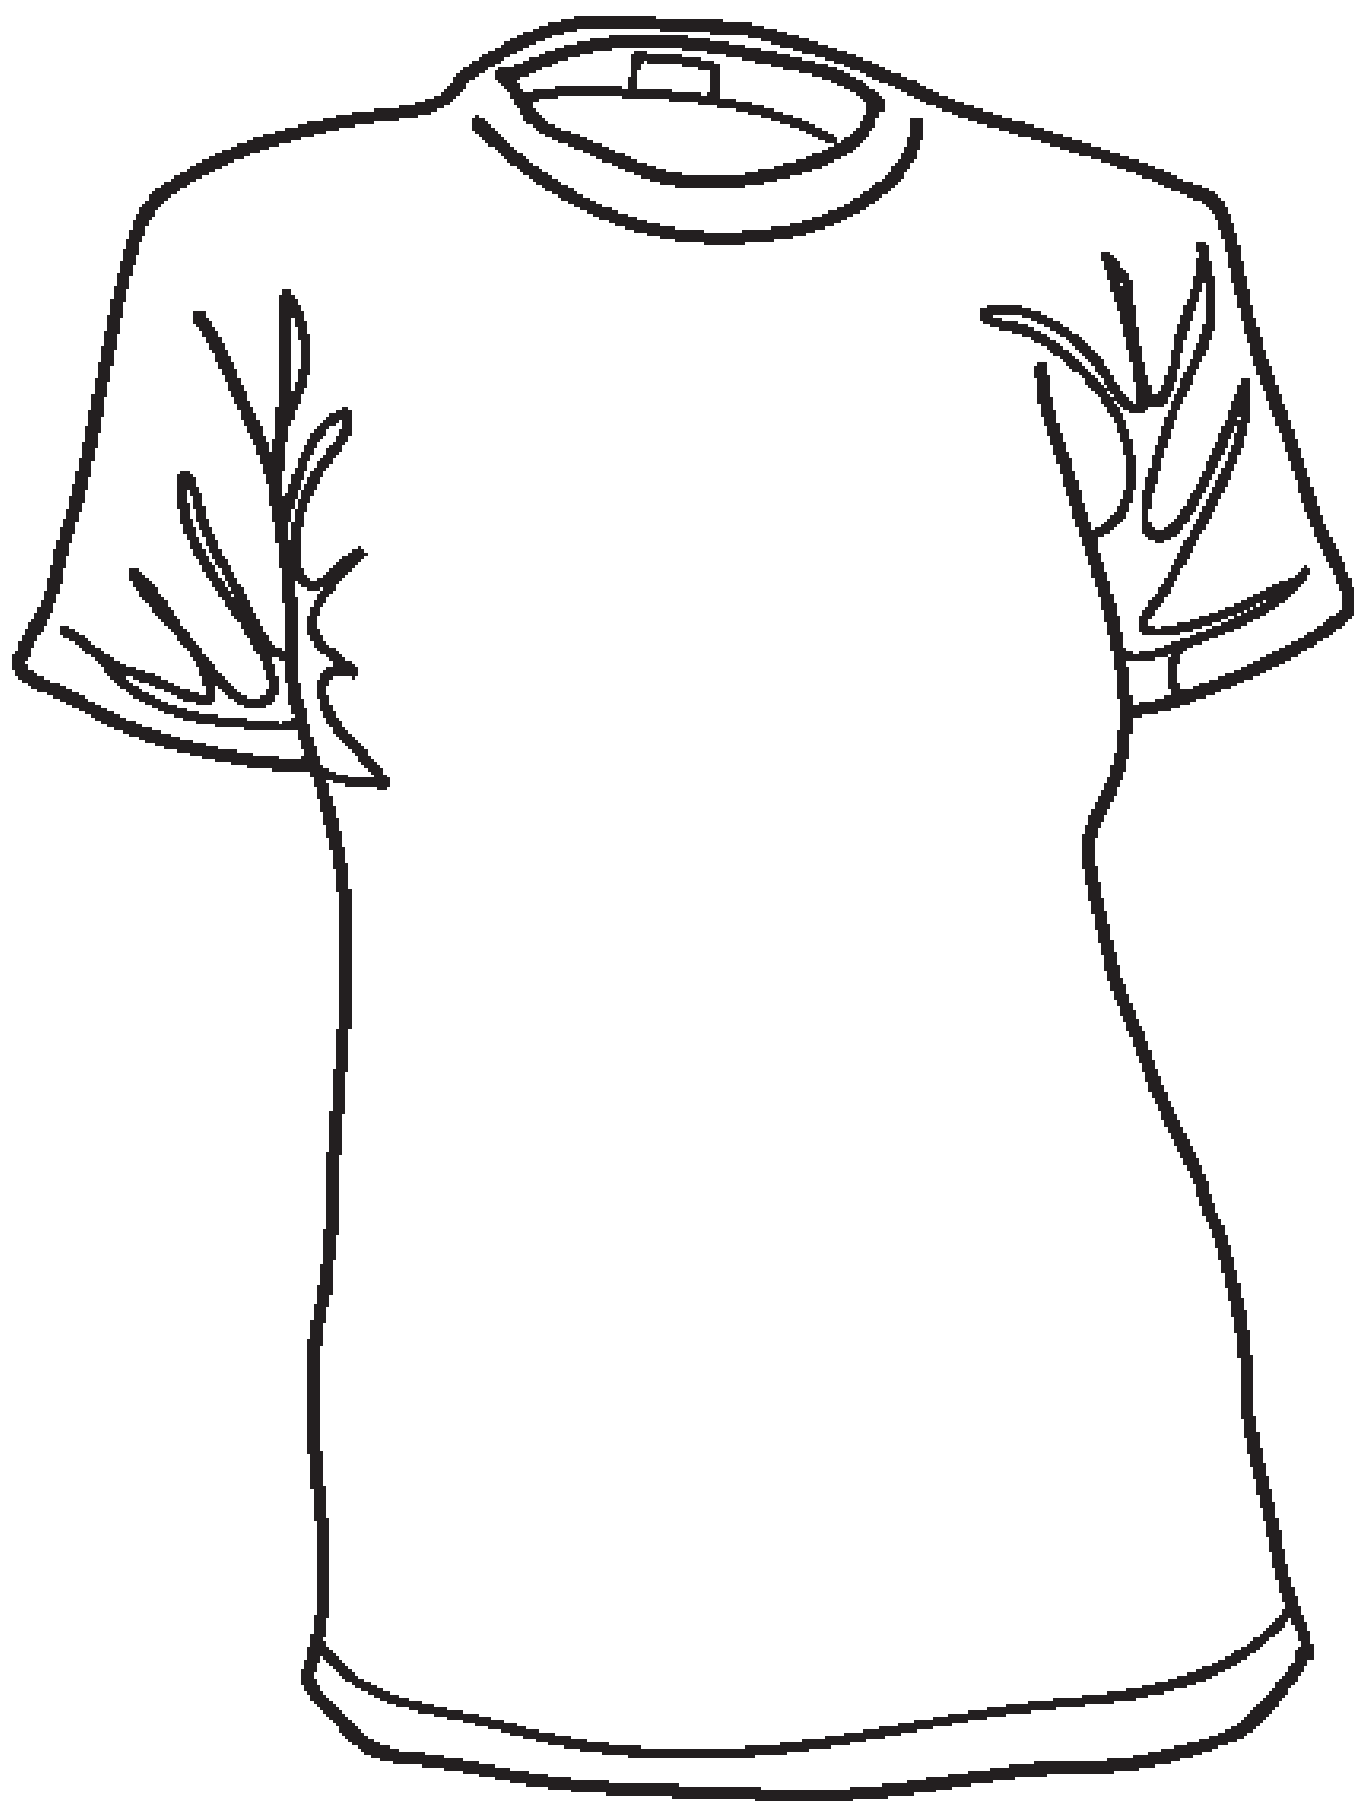

T-hemp

isiZulu

Sesotho

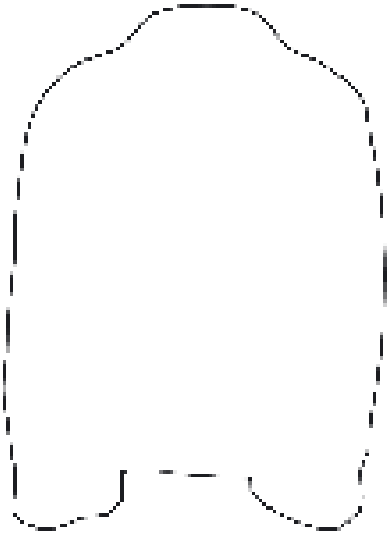

isikibha

sekipa

jersey

jersey

Find
the right
sticker in the back of the
book.

A jersey is made on a knitting machine or by granny's knitting needles and beautiful yarn. We wear jerseys in winter to keep us warm.

How do I say the word in:

English

Afrikaans

jersey

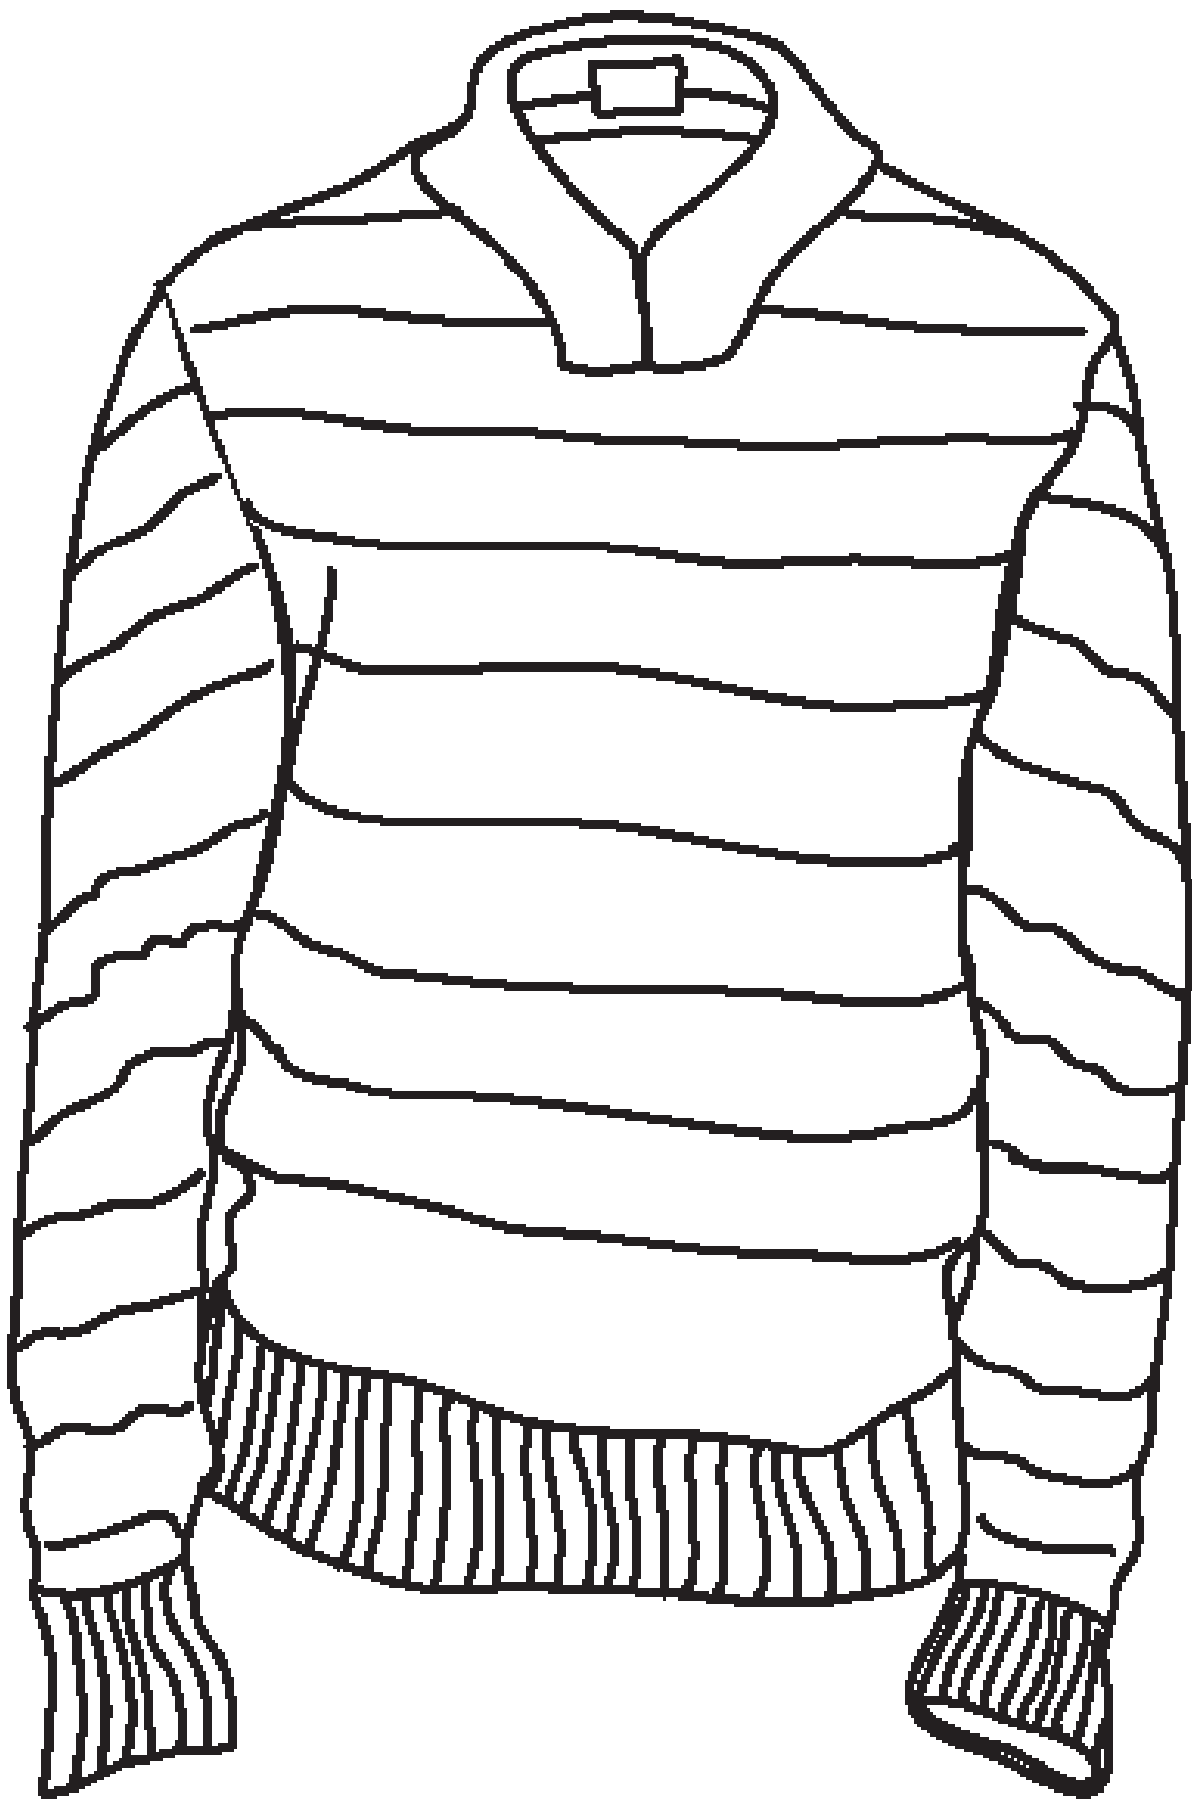

trui

isiZulu

Sesotho

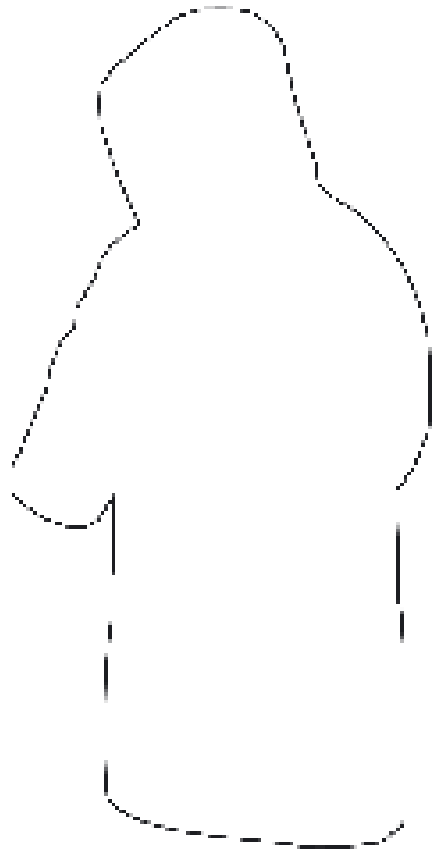

ijezi

jeresi

rain coat

rain coat

Find
the right
sticker in the back of the
book.

A raincoat keeps us dry when we have to walk in the rain.

How do I say the word in:

English

Afrikaans

rain coat

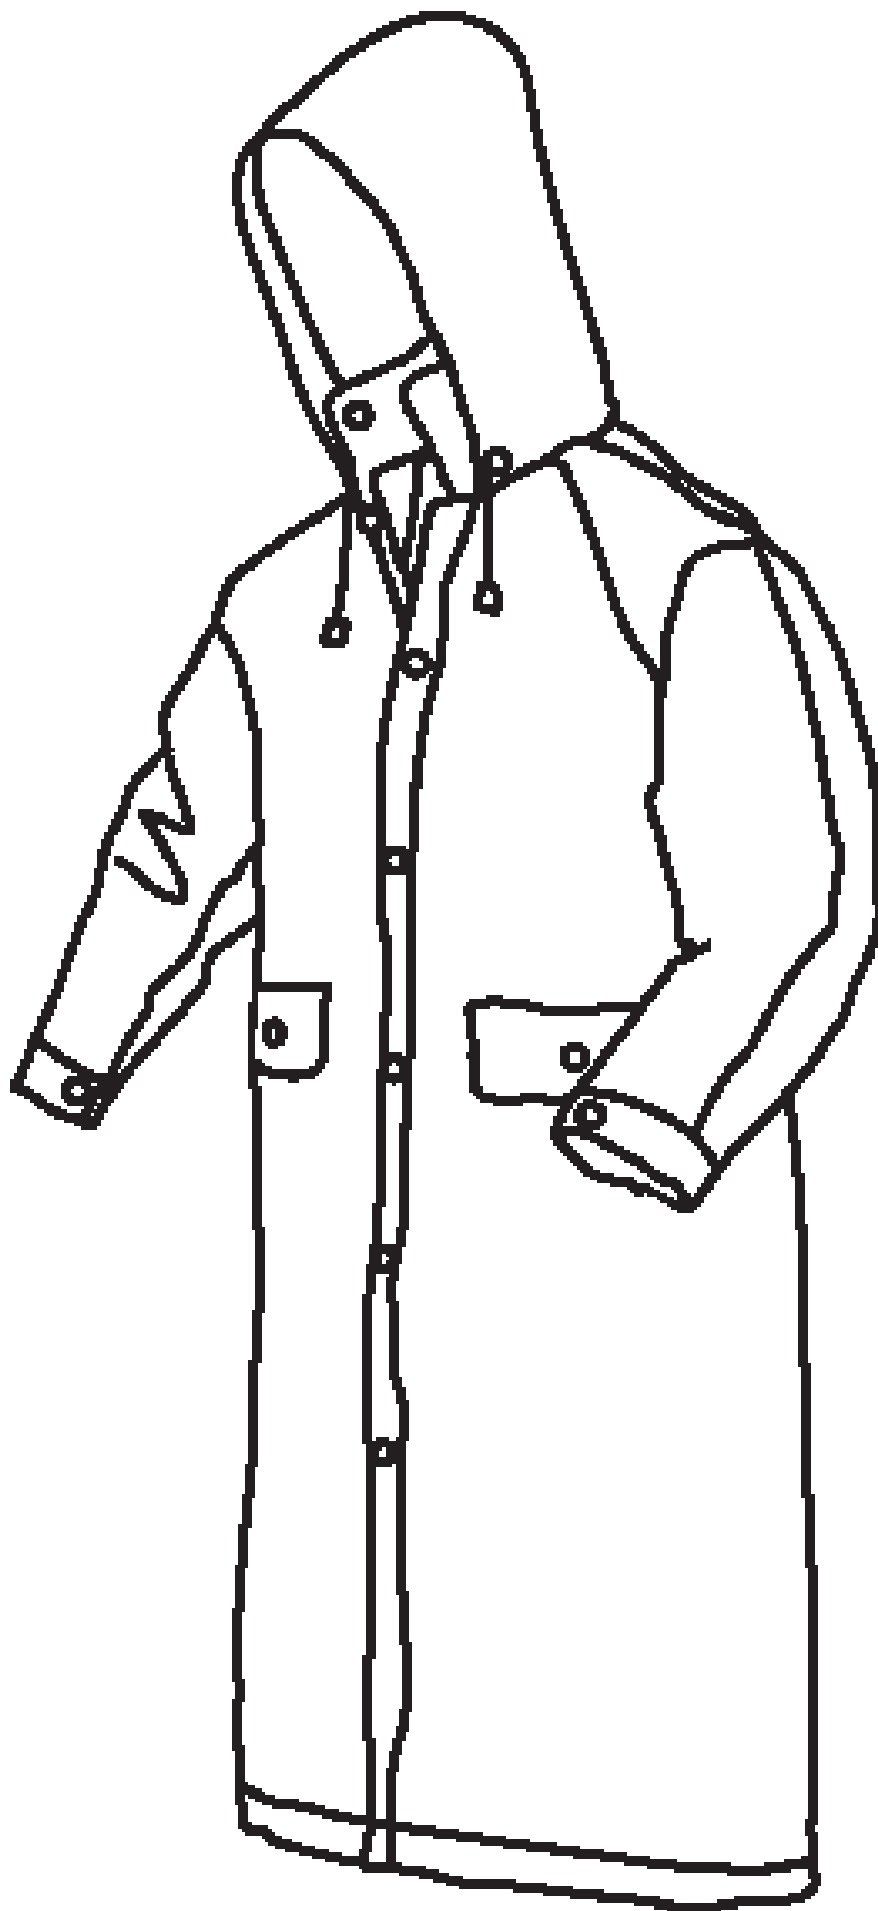

reënjas

isiZulu

Sesotho

ijazi lemvula

jase ya pula

socks

socks

Find
the right
sticker in the back of the
book.

Socks are worn with shoes and boots. Socks can be long or short, and they come in lots of colours. You can even wear special bed socks when you go to bed in winter!

How do I say the word in:

English

socks

Afrikaans

sokkies

isiZulu

amasokisi

Sesotho

dikausu

