

My colouring book of

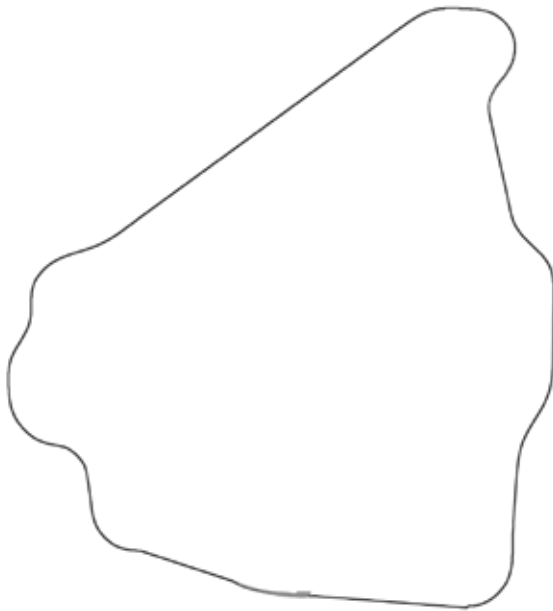

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS

facts • vocabulary • SA languages • reading • writing • drawing • colouring in piano

piano

The piano has 36 black keys and 52 white keys.

A person playing the piano is called a pianist.

How do I say the word in:

English:

piano

Afrikaans:

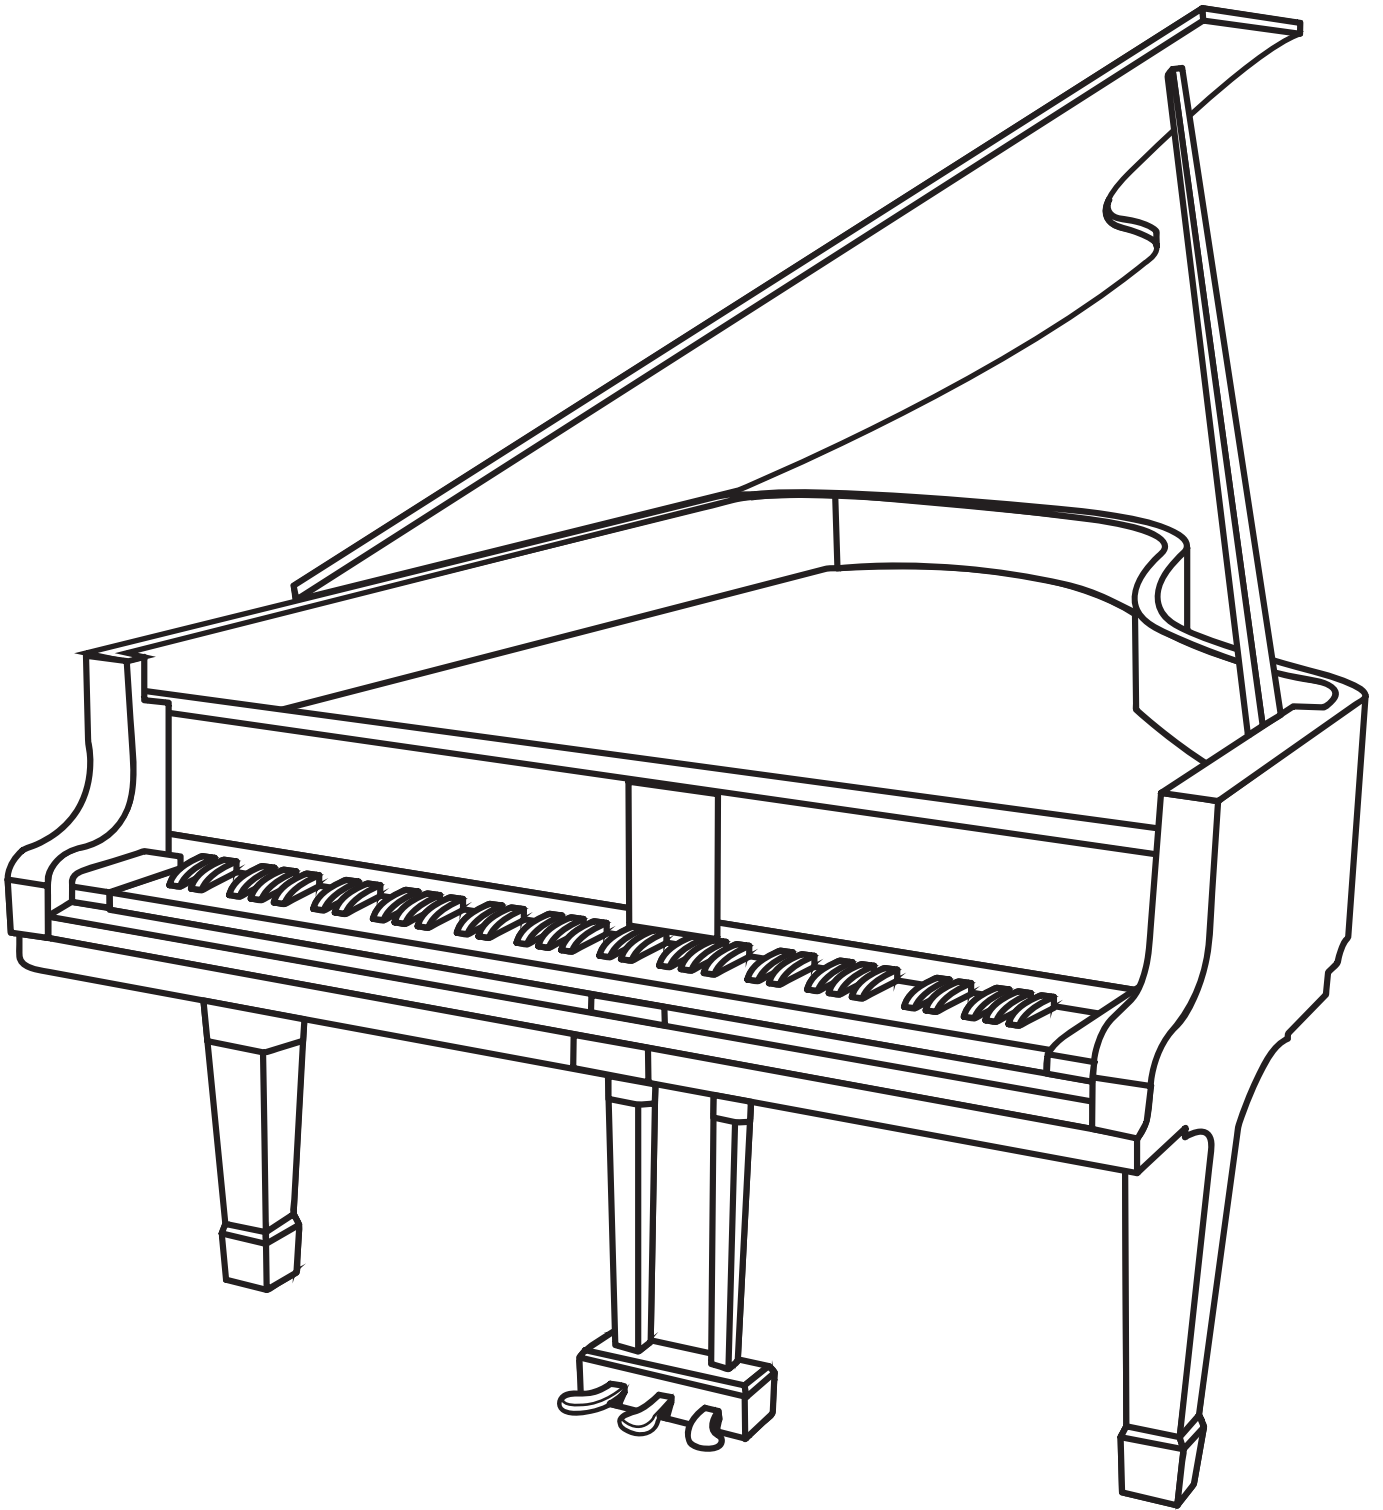

klavier

isiZulu:

upiyane

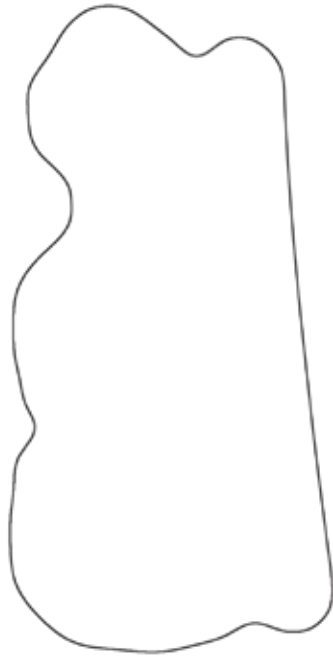

Sesotho:

piana

violin

violin

Find
the right
sticker in the back of the book.

This string instrument has four strings and you play it with a bow. A cello looks like a big violin.

A person playing the violin is called a violinist.

How do I say the word in:

English:

violin

Afrikaans:

viool

isiZulu:

ivayolini

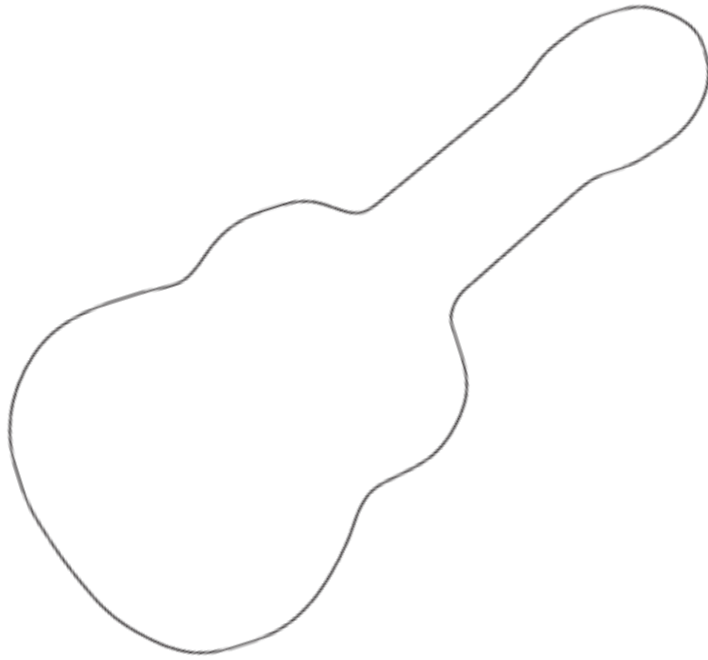

Sesotho:

violene

guitar

guitar

Find
the right
sticker in the back of the
book.

The guitar usually has six or more strings.
It is played with the fingers or a pick.
A person playing the guitar is called a guitarist.

How do I say the word in:

English:

guitar

Afrikaans:

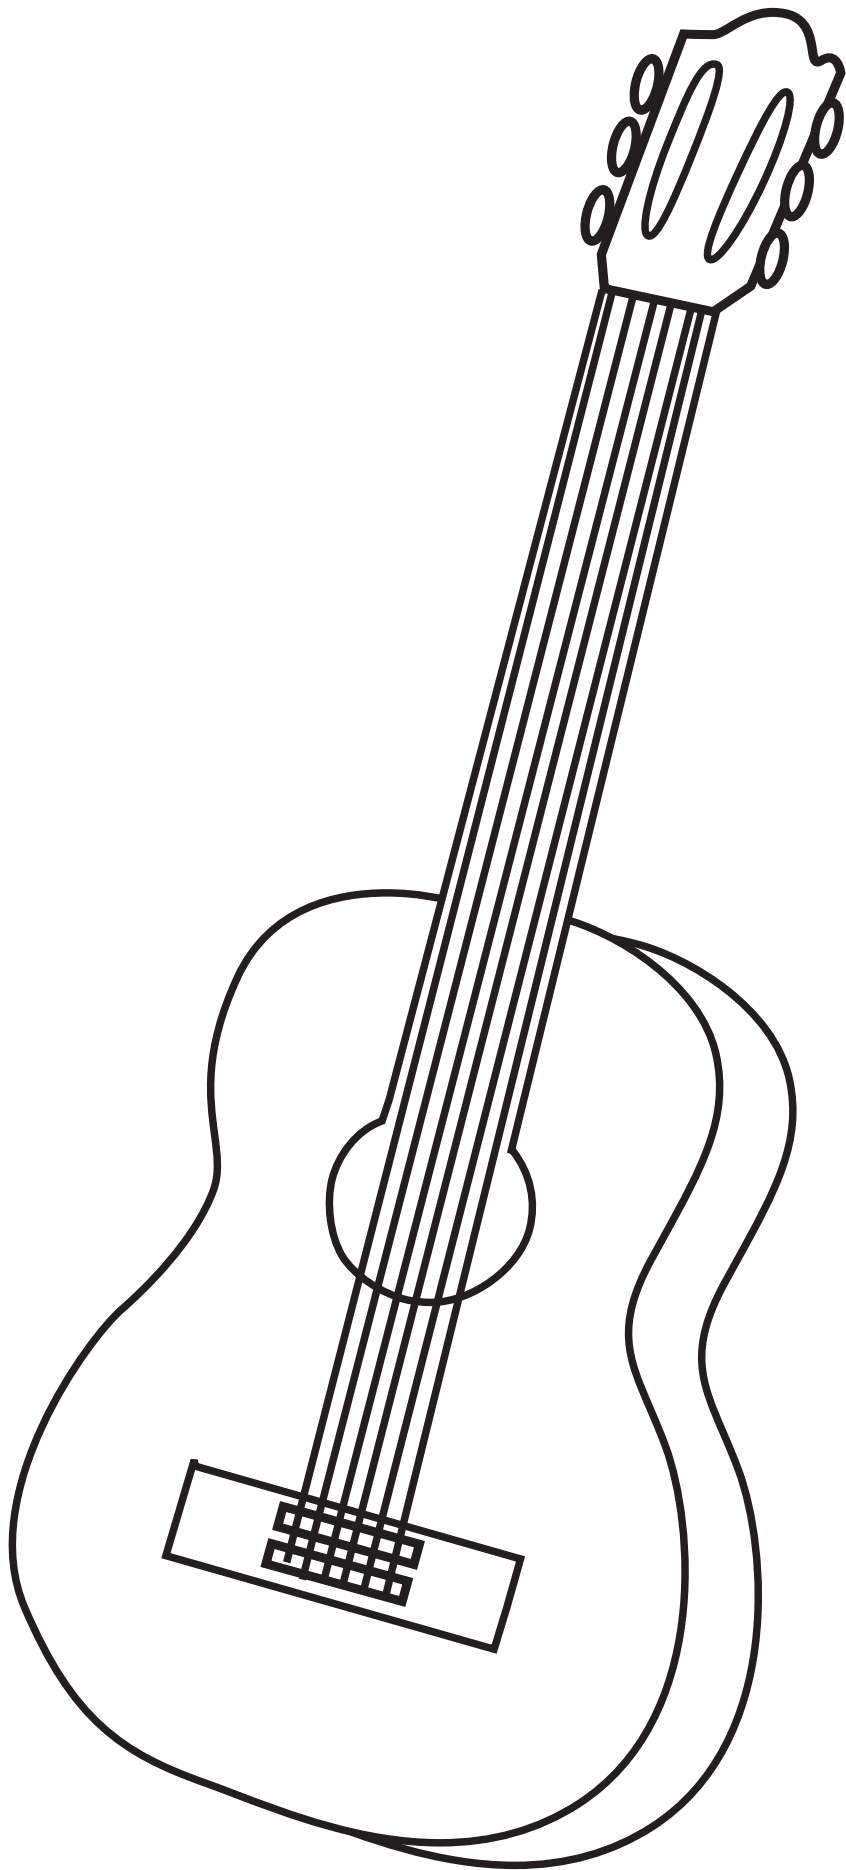

kitaar

isiZulu:

isiginci

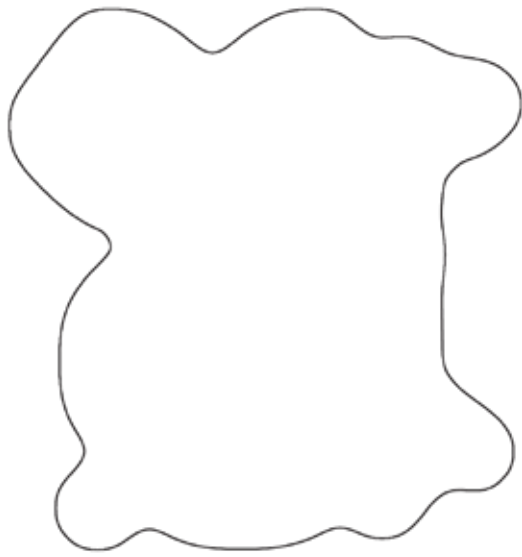

Sesotho:

katara

drums

drums

Find
the right
sticker in the back of the
book.

Drums are percussion instruments and are struck with your hands or with a drumstick to produce rhythmic sounds.

A person playing drums is called a drummer.

How do I say the word in:

English:

drums

Afrikaans:

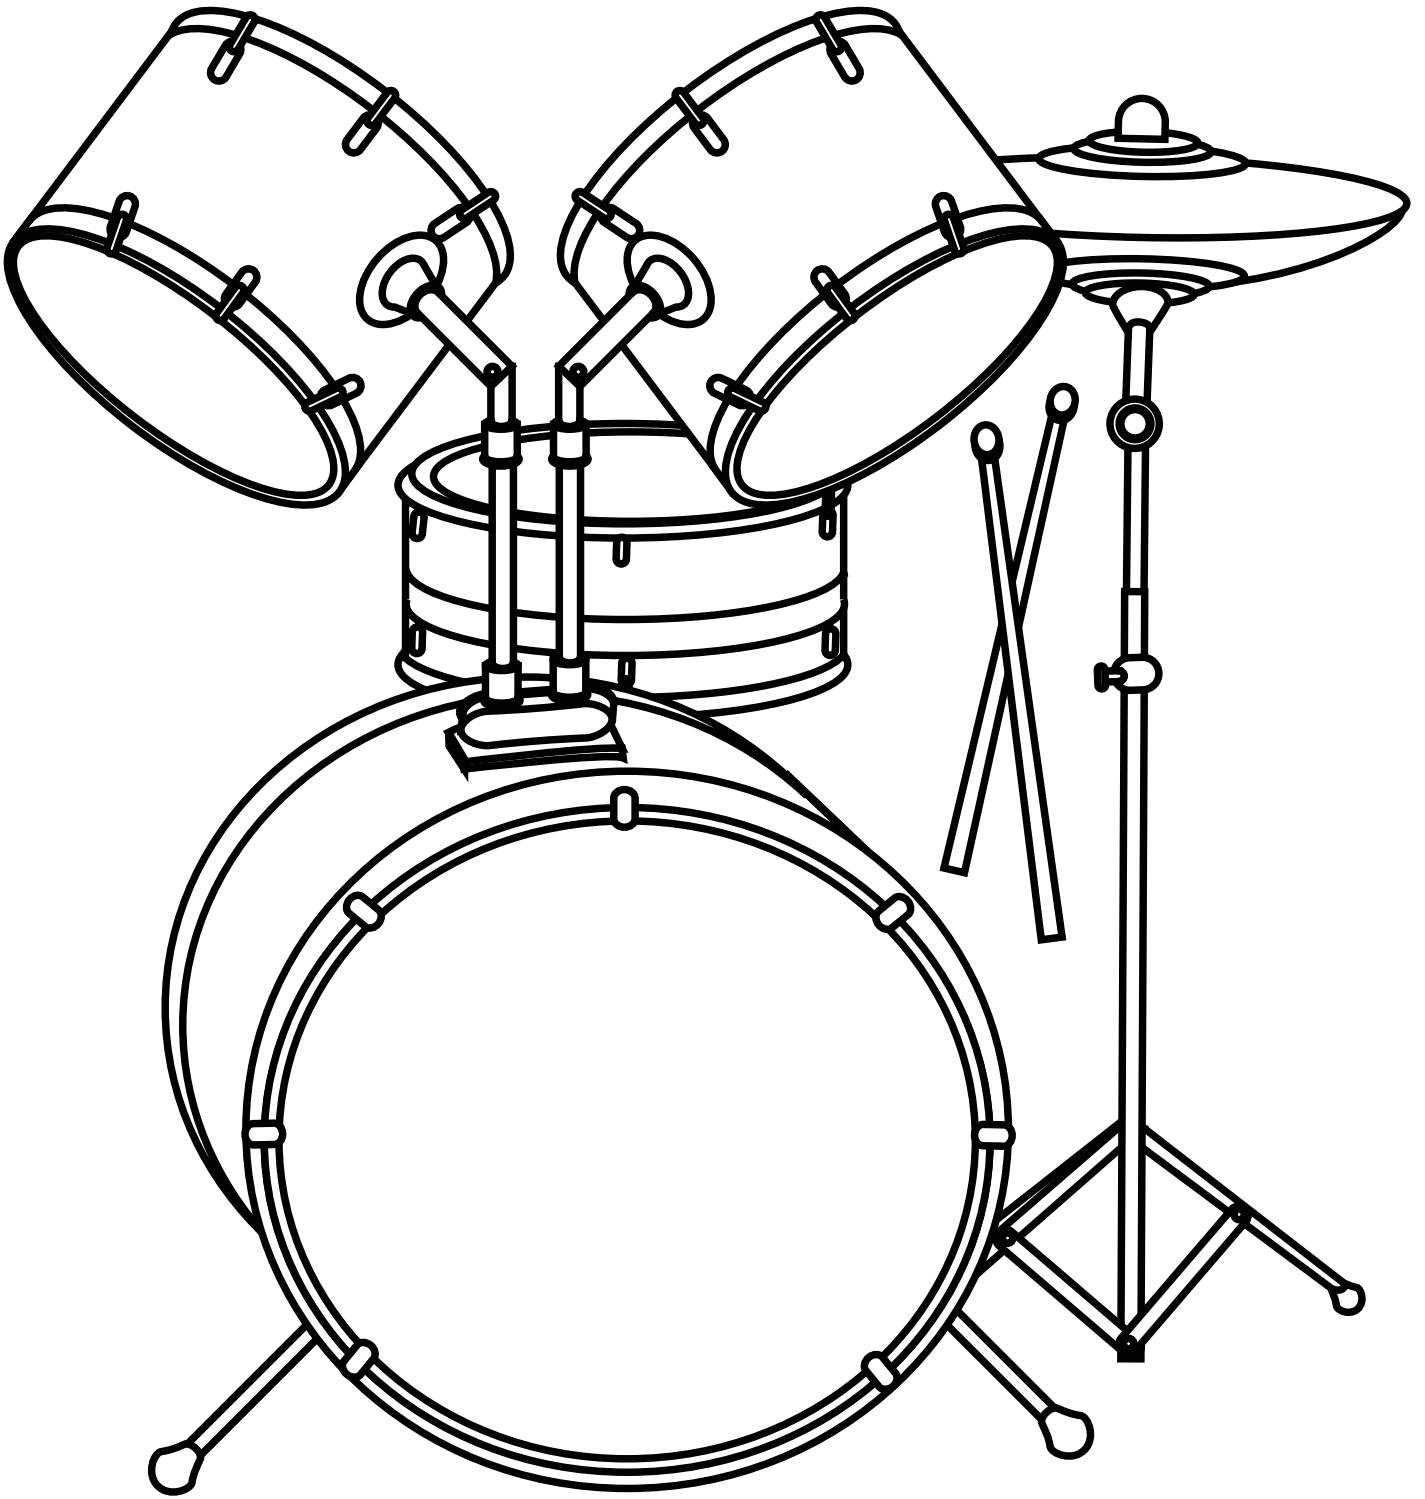

dromme

isiZulu:

isigubhu

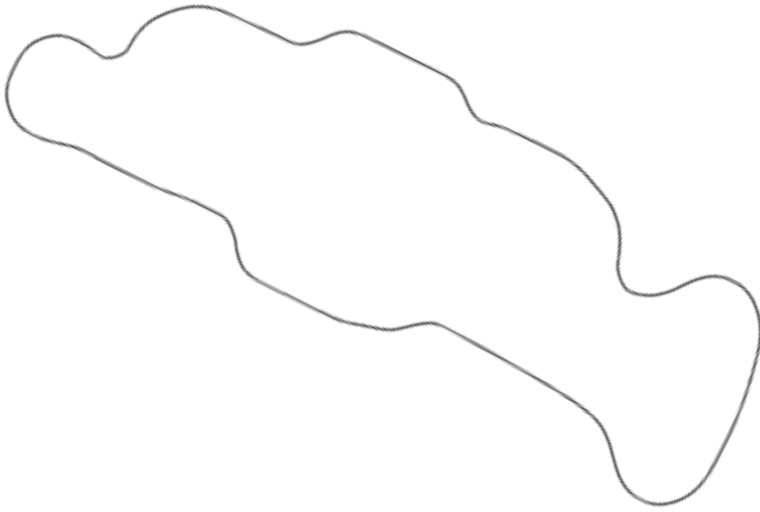

Sesotho:

meropa

trumpet

trumpet

Find
the right
sticker in the back of the
book.

A trumpet belongs to the brass family.
It is played by blowing air through closed lips.

A person playing the trumpet is called a trumpeter.

How do I say the word in:

English:

trumpet

Afrikaans:

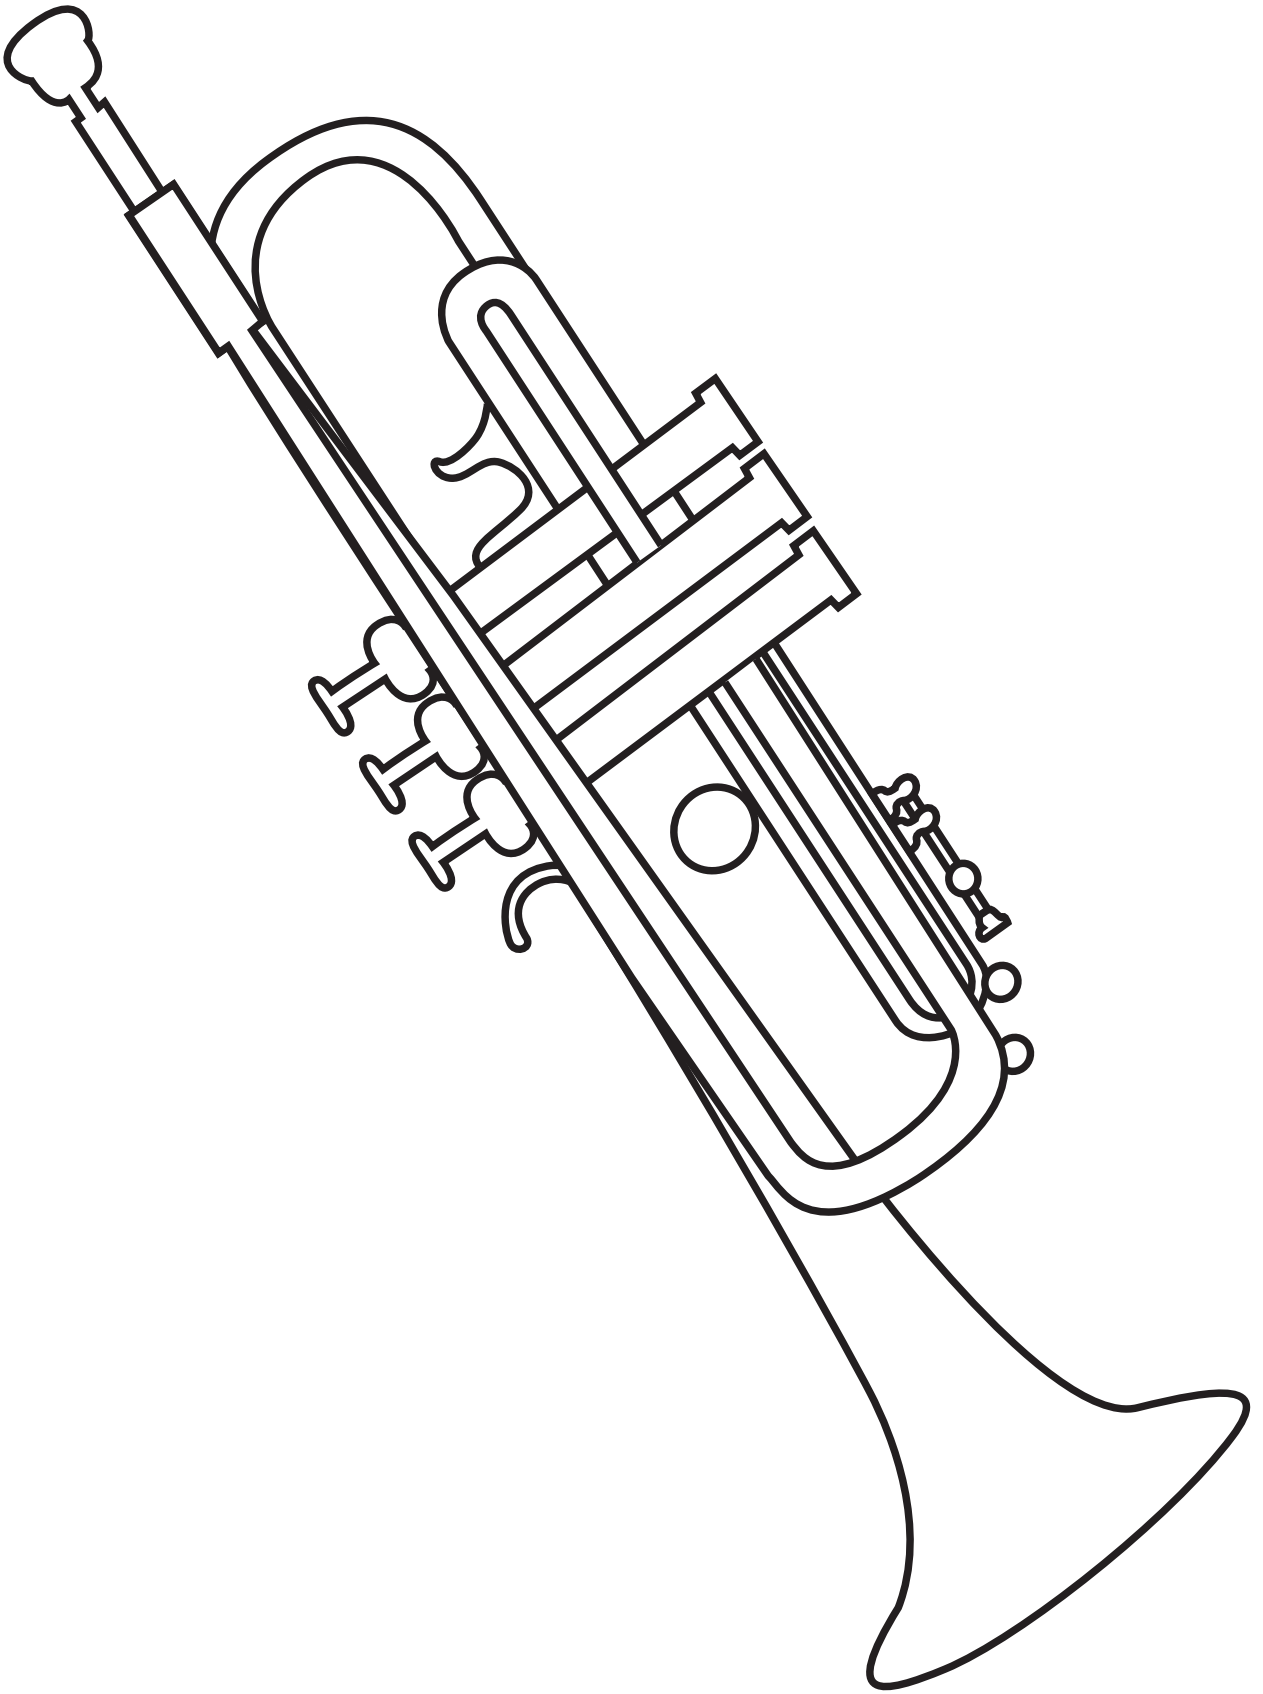

trompet

isiZulu:

icilongo

Sesotho:

terompeta

horn

horn

Find
the right
sticker in the back of the
book.

The horn or French horn belongs to the brass family of instruments.

The horn consists of about 3.5 metres of tubing wound into a circle.

A person who plays the horn is a horn player.

How do I say the word in:

English:

horn

Afrikaans:

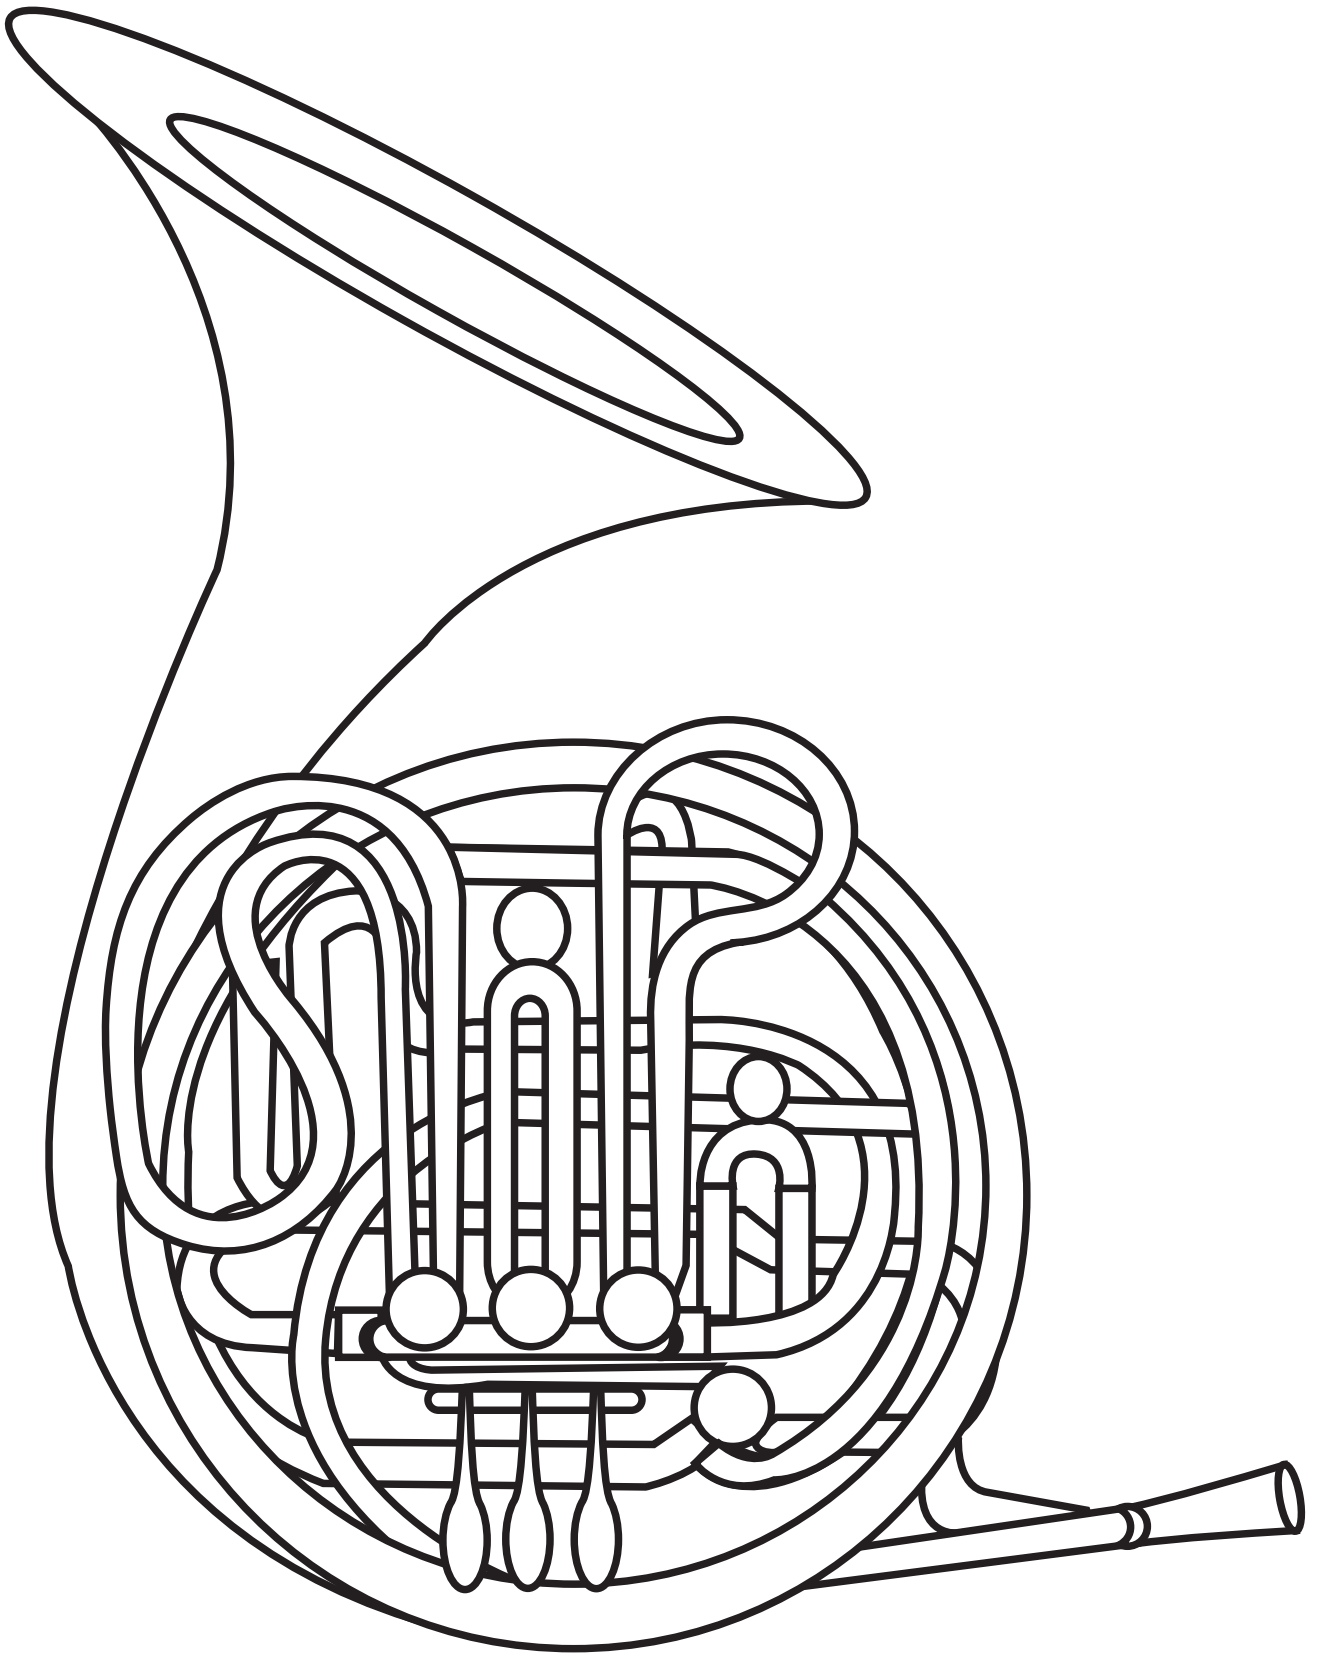

horing

isiZulu:

icilongo

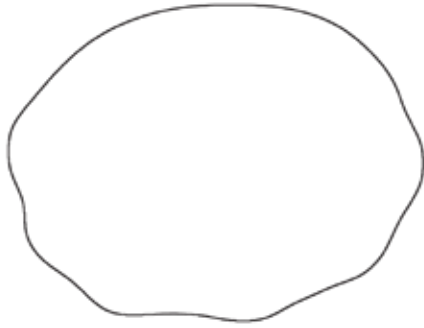

Sesotho:

lenaka

tambourine

tambourine

Find
the right
sticker in the back of the
book.

The tambourine is a percussion instrument.
The frame is made of wood or plastic with pairs of small metal jingles.
Mozart started using the tambourine in his music in 1782.

How do I say the word in:

English:

tambourine

Afrikaans:

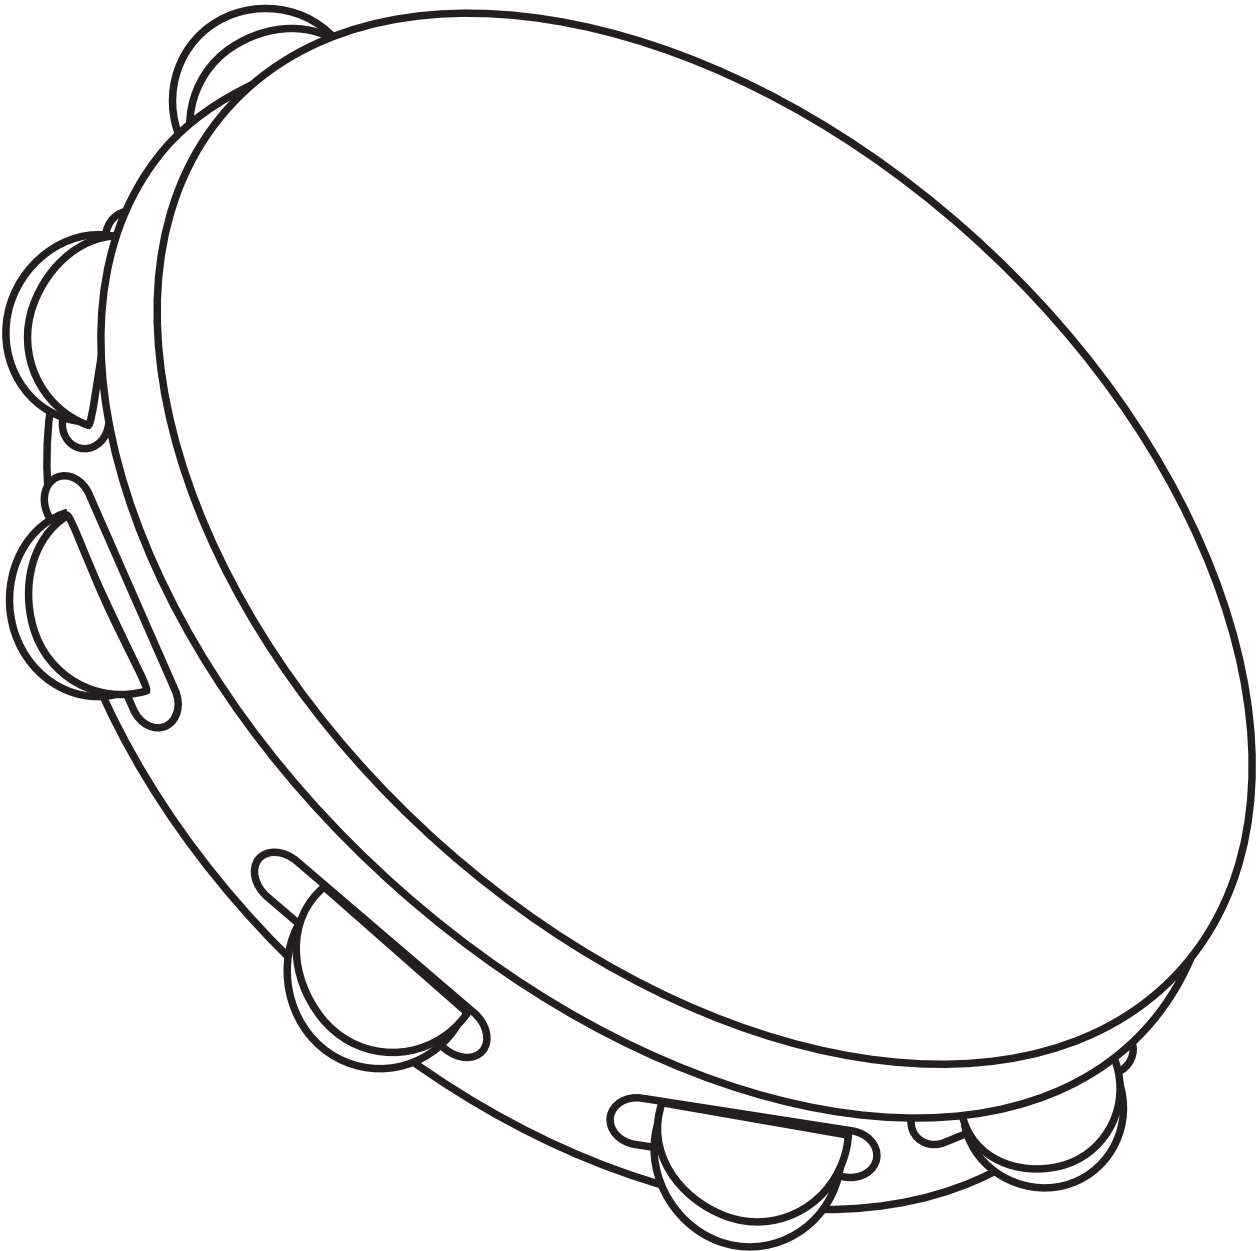

tamboeryn

isiZulu:

ithamiboline

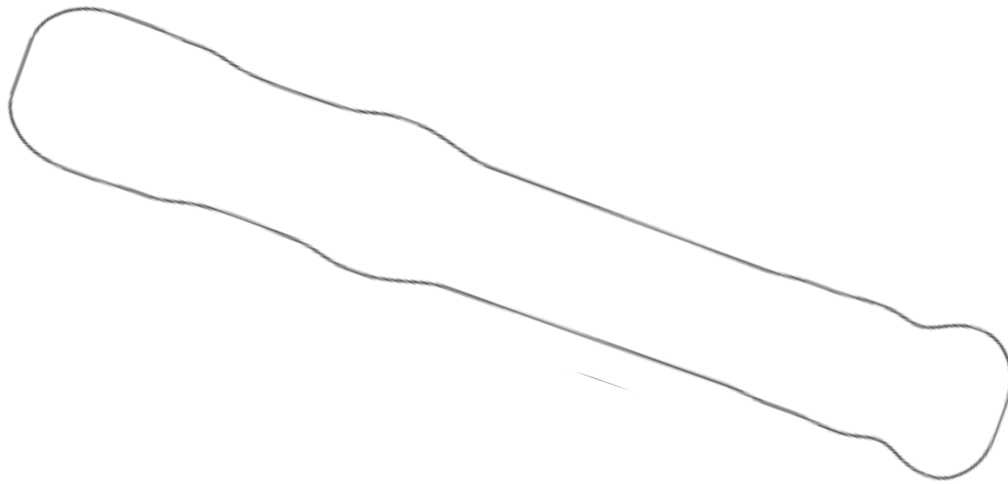

Sesotho:

tamaborine

recorder

recorder

Find
the right
sticker in the back of the
book.

The recorder is a woodwind instrument.
To play the recorder you must blow into the mouthpiece and move your fingers over the finger holes to create various pitches.

How do I say the word in:

English:

recorder

Afrikaans:

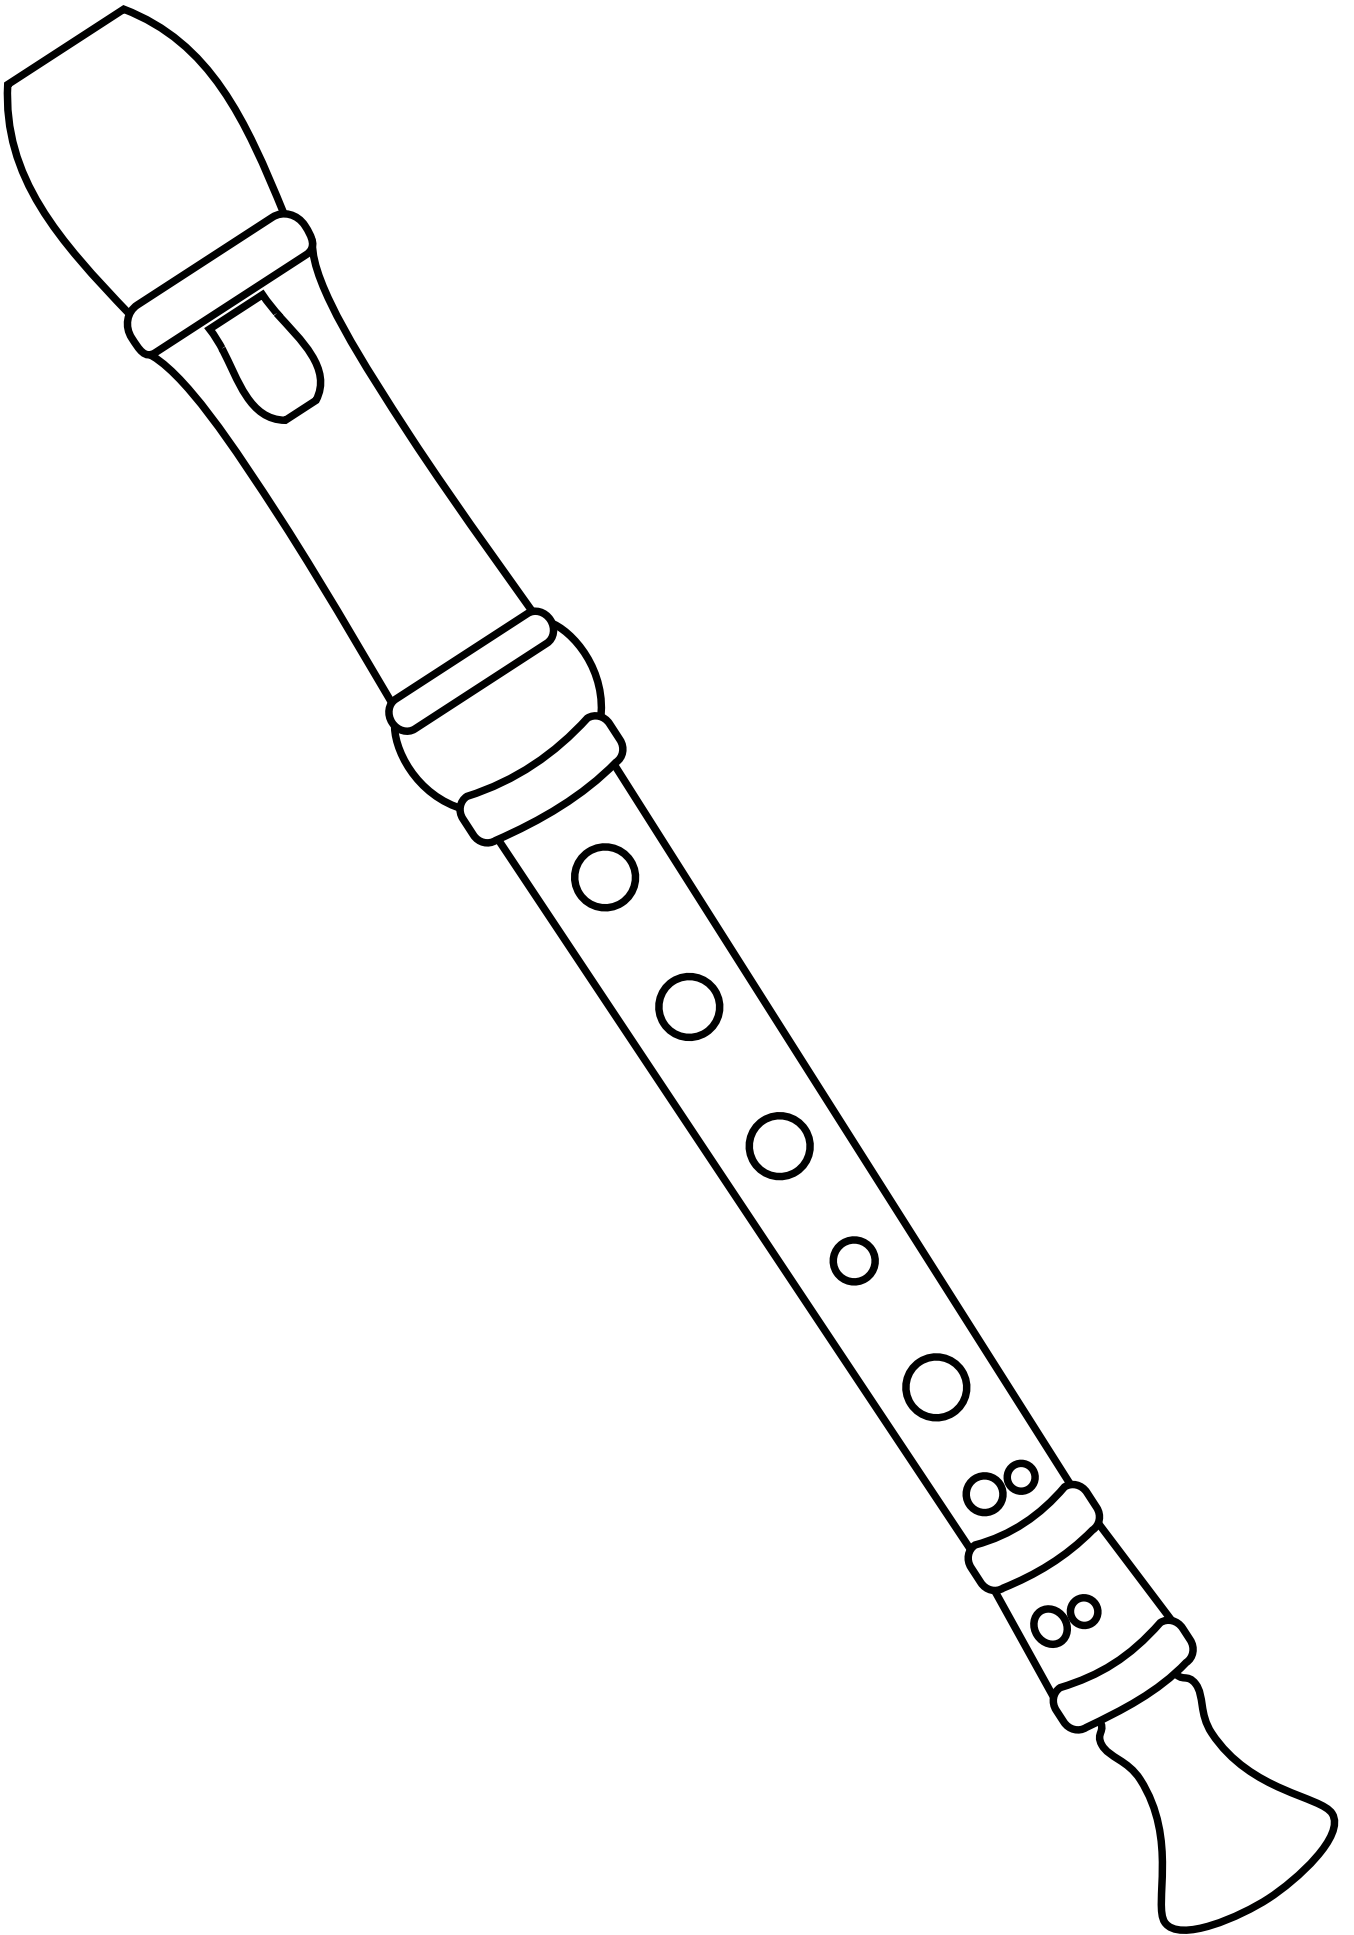

blokfluit

isiZulu:

irekhoda

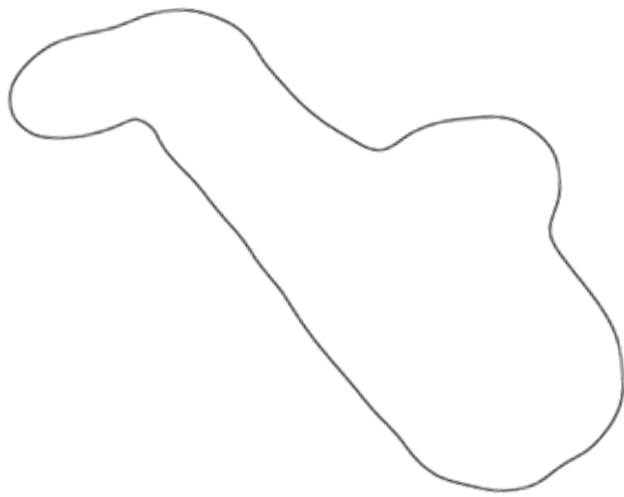

Sesotho:

kgatiso

saxophone

saxophone

The saxophone is a large woodwind instrument. The sound is produced by the vibration of the reed when you blow into the mouthpiece.

Someone who plays this instrument is called a saxophonist.

How do I say the word in:

English:

saxophone

Afrikaans:

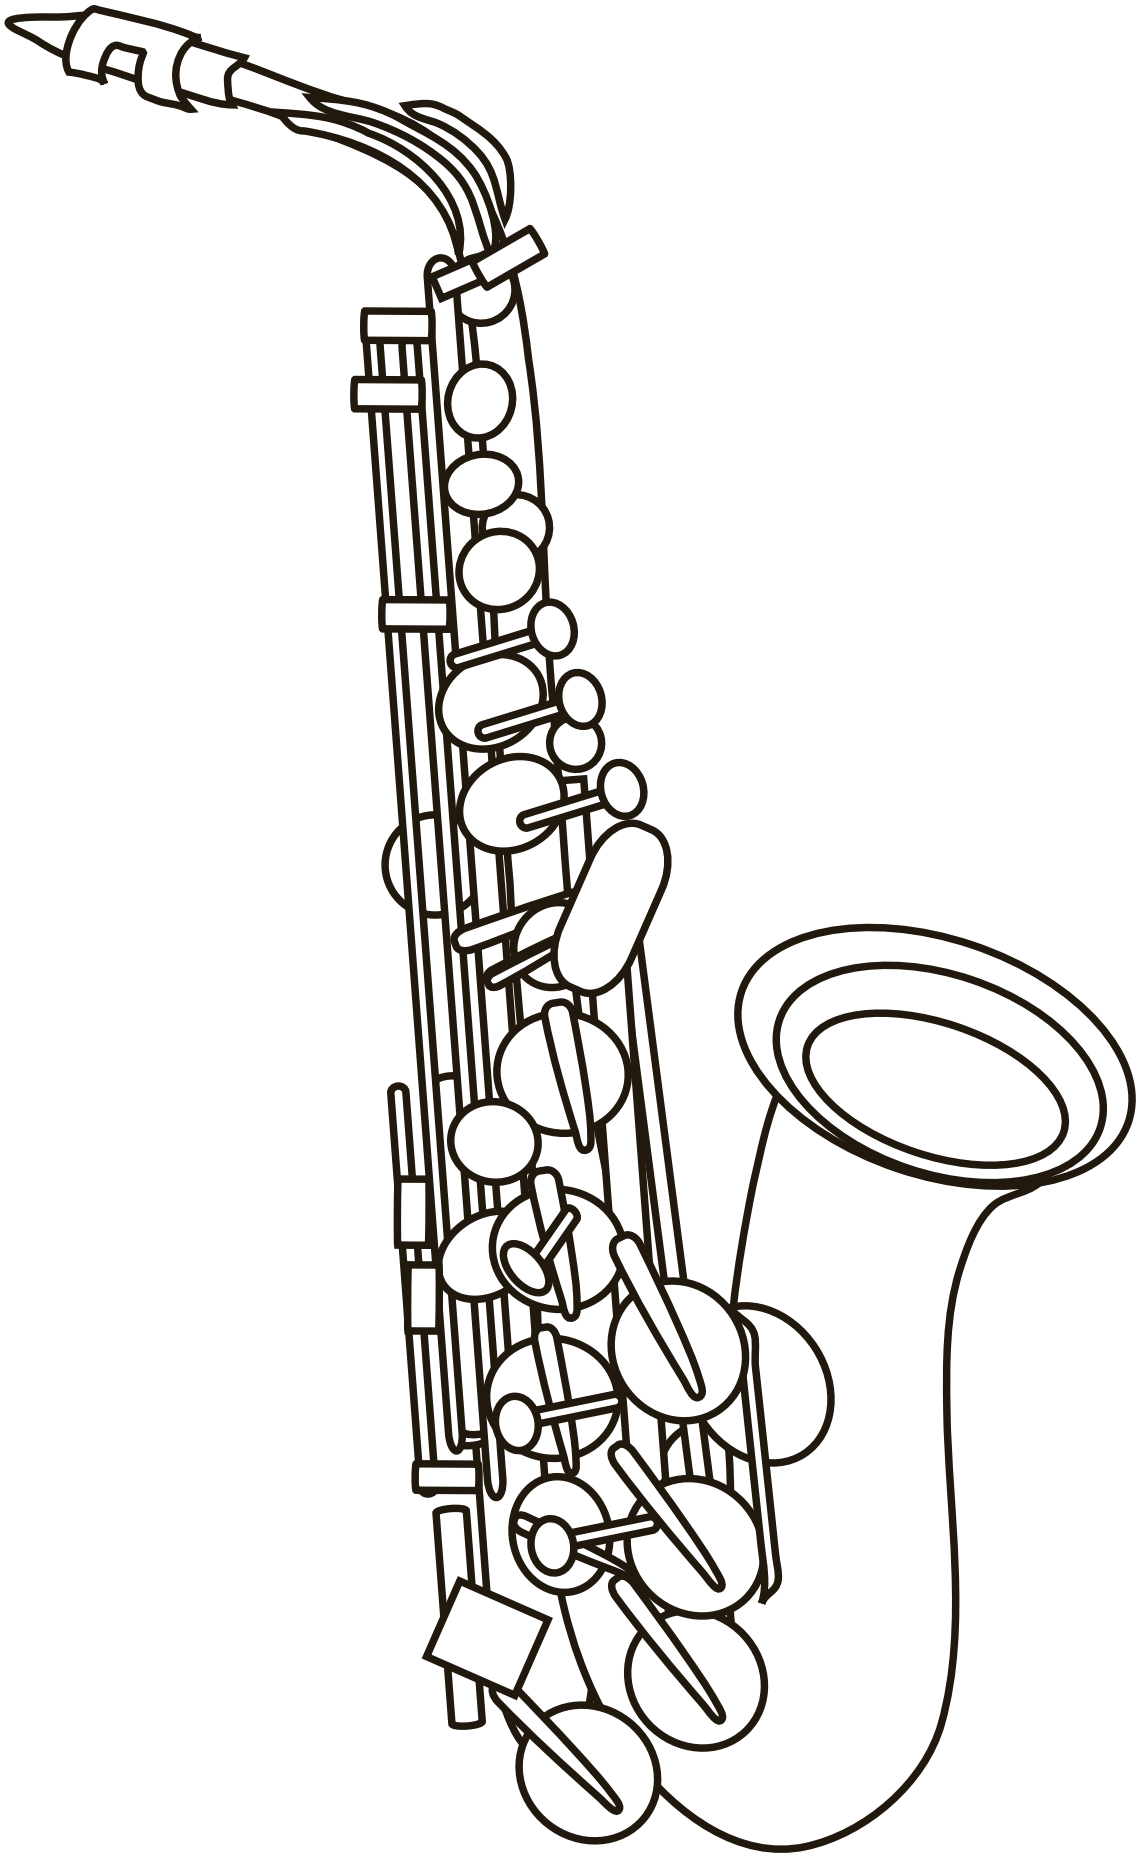

saksofoon

isiZulu:

isakisofoni

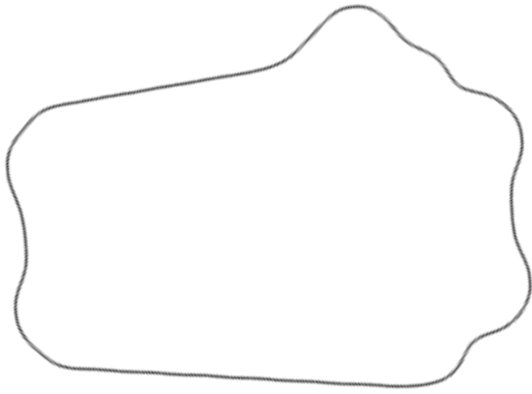

Sesotho:

saksofono

xylophone

xylophone

The xylophone is a percussion instrument.
In South Africa it is better known as the marimba.

It has rows of bars and is played with two mallets.

How do I say the word in:

English:

xylophone

Afrikaans:

xilofoon

isiZulu:

izilofoni

Sesotho:

ilofoni

